HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT FUNCTIONING.

Of the varied assignments allotted this writer this week none gave quite so much pleasure as the visit to the Home Economics Department of Hondo High School during the first period Tuesday morning. Four years of high school deprived of the very things which the girls of Hondo High School are now privileged to have—thanks to a far-sighted Superintendent, a capable Board of Trustees and an industrious P. T. A.—it was with deep envy and a wide-eyed, open-mouthed awe that we were introduced into the realms of household art and initiated into the secrets and mysteries of culinary skill in general and biscuit-making in particular.

The Home Economics Department is a new thing for Hondo High School, since its installation in September this year. The department is under the efficient direction and supervision of Miss Stubbs of Austin, Texas, a graduate of Texas University and a teacher with several years of successful and valuable experience. It has fallen upon her, as the initial instructor, to guide the department through its infancy to a successful maturity as a part of the curriculum of Hondo High School. It is no mean task. She has the experience and the courage for it—all she needs is your enthusiasm and cooperation.

The course is arranged so as to include four groups of girls from the four high school grades. Each group meets every school day, alternating days for recitation and practical tests in the department's work-room or kitchen. Later they hope to add a combination living room-dining room to the kitchen laboratory. In this way book knowledge is strengthened by experience.

On this, our first visit, we were agreeably impressed with the pleasant surroundings in which the students work. The entire room is spotlessly white and clean, woodwork and equipment all in white and gleaming metal. There are, bulking largely to emphasize the steadfastness of purpose and practicability of the department, three gas stoves, an electric stove, electric refrigerator, white tables with supply cupboards, and a sink unit. With girls in bright smocks, and a graceful arrangement of purple jackbeans and pink queen's crown on a nearby table, an accent of color in the austerous surroundings, it was difficult to think anything so decorative could be very useful.

Immediately, however, the class set to work on the project for that period, that of making biscuits, and proved themselves to be very competent, and, along with the biscuit ingredients, to have the makings of very good cooks. The class functions efficiently and systematically. Members of the group were appointed floor hostess, supply hostess, refrigerator hostess, stove hostess, etc., their duties just what their names imply.

The supply hostess for that period allotted to each girl and her cooking mate the materials necessary in following the day's chosen recipe, and out from white tables came utensils and material for the process of biscuit-making. The breakfast unit is being studied at present and biscuit-making is one phase of the work. As soon as all parts of the unit are mastered, a complete breakfast will be prepared and served by the girls in the class.

After watching several of the girls industriously and confidently measuring flour, milk, etc., we reluctantly took our leave before the final results were reached. We were assured, however, that although each girl had to eat her own concoction, none had suffered indigestion. We are sure of it.

In fact, they all enjoy eating their own handiwork. Thus skillfully prepared and cooked under most modern and efficient conditions and served amid such delightful surroundings in a congenial atmosphere, how could it be otherwise?

CAR LOT SHIPMENTS.

Hondo has been doing a big export business in grain shipments this fall, thanks to the good crops. Shipments for the week ending October 17th have been as follows:

Corn, 14 cars, bringing the total for the season up to 113 cars of that grain.

Maize, 1 car; for the season 29.

Hegari, 4 cars; for the season 31.

Broom corn, 2 cars; for the season 40.

Total cars for the season 213.

These totals include shipments loaded out at Dunlay but billed from Hondo as well as those leaving from Hondo.

CATTLE FOR SALE.

I will sell to the highest bidder on Saturday, October 26th, at 2 o'clock P. M., at my ranch, on the Verde, about 25 head of cows and some calves. Right to reject any and all bids is specifically reserved.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BENEFIT SUPPER.

The Hondo Chamber of Commerce will give a benefit supper at the Rath Building next to the Hondo State Bank on Saturday, Nov. 2nd. Supper will be served by the ladies of the town who are assisting the C. of C. Preparations will be made to accommodate the largest crowd ever to attend a similar event in Hondo. Chili, tamales and beans will form the main items on the menu. Supper will be served from five-thirty o'clock until seven-thirty.

The money raised from the supper will go to pay off the indebtedness on the Plaza Recreation Park, to help finance the buying of a new dump-ground site, and for incidental expenses of the C. of C.

Come out and support your local Chamber of Commerce organization.

WEDS IN SAN SALVADOR.

The following account of the wedding of V. H. Blocker, Hondo boy, and Miss Hazel Silliman, which took place in San Salvador, Central America, is taken from The El Paso Times, issue of October 12th.

Marked with unusual beauty of appointment and picturesque details was the wedding of Miss Hazel Silliman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Silliman, 2630 Wheeling Street, El Paso, to Consul V. Harwood Blocker, which was solemnized in San Salvador, El Salvador, Central America.

The ceremony took place Sunday, October 6, at 7 A. M., between arrival and departure of the airplane, instead of in the American Legation on October 5, as first planned, due to a tropical storm which delayed the bridegroom's arrival.

Gen. Jose Trabanino, governor of San Salvador, officiated at the wedding vows, assisted by his official secretary.

Dr. Frank P. Corrigan, minister plenipotentiary, acted as witness for the bridegroom, while Mr. William W. Renwick, envoy extraordinary from the United States, was Mr. Blocker's best man. Mr. Renwick is fiscal representative accredited to the government of El Salvador.

The bride's brother, Mr. E. R. Silliman, Jr., of San Salvador, representative of Pan-American Airways of Central America, gave her in marriage, and Mrs. Silliman was matron of honor to her sister-in-law.

The bride was lovely in a gray crepe frock, inset across the shoulders with real lace and fastened down the front with rhinestone buttons. The coat was trimmed with gray fox fur. Accessories were dark blue, the hat assembly smart, being a poke bonnet with chin veil caught in front with a bouquet of French flowers.

Her bridal bouquet was of orchids, sent from Guatemala by plane for the occasion, and estafanates, a rare white bell cluster of flowers of which there are but two species in San Salvador.

Mrs. Silliman, the former Eleanor Hall of El Paso, was groomed in dark blue crepe, trimmed with white and made on straight lines. All accessories matched, and she carried a bouquet of shell pink and rose pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony there followed a copa de champagne and the couple then left by plane for Belize, British Honduras, where they will remain prior to going to Mr. Blocker's new station.

From the steps of the airplane the bride threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Carlotta Drews, charming young girl of San Salvador.

The ceremony was attended by a group of closest friends, including Mrs. Frank P. Corrigan, wife of the minister; Mr. William Pearson Cochran, vice consul of San Salvador, and diplomatic secretary to the legation of the United States in San Salvador; Mrs. Cochran; Mr. Dorsey Gasaway Fisher, diplomatic secretary to the legation of the United States; his mother, Mrs. U. L. Fisher of Washington D. C.; Miss Violetta Guirrola, Mr. Ana Maria V. de Drews and two daughters, Misses Elena and Carlotta; Mr. James Cordell, Mr. Cyril

WOODMEN ENTERTAIN.

The W. O. W. and the Woodmen Circle held a very successful meeting in Hondo, Texas, Friday night, October 10th. A large crowd was present to enjoy the fine program that was arranged by Sov. H. H. Crow, Financial Secretary. Mrs. Irene Purgason of San Antonio, a former radio artist and new director of the juvenile of San Antonio, sang several lovely songs. Miss Sis Merritt furnished quite a number of dances by her pupils which were enjoyed by the crowd. Blue Bonnet Circle Degree Team, State Champions, of San Antonio, Texas, exemplified the work in a very impressive manner as did the W. O. W. Degree Team of Somerset.

The feature of the program was the work of the juvenile team under the excellent supervision of Mrs. Marguerite Murrill. The talks of Dr. Koerth, Superintendent of the W. O. W. Hospital, Mrs. Benkendorfer, District Manager of District No. 35 and Guardian of Blue Bonnet Grove of San Antonio, Texas, with Mrs. Donehoe, National Director of the juveniles, and Miss Bessie Dolan, District Manager of District No. 11 and National Delegate of the Woodmen Circle, were enjoyed.

Mr. Bert Lyon, State Drill Master, assisted Consul Commander Dr. Tay-

QUIHI NOTES.

See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken. Gen. 19:21.

"Escape to the mountain", was the last hurly call given to Lot. Old and feeble, he fears the exertion will kill him. There is a small city with in easier reach, Zoar. It lies in the path of destruction, but on top of the mercy already shown to him, Lot intensely pleads to have it spared for his refuge, his safety zone. It was not in vain. The text above contains the answer. Zoar was spared for his sake. The crusader's many centuries later, still found the place under the name of Segor, a friendly village surrounded by many plum trees. Did the inhabitants of the place ever realize what turned their fate? What a chance for Lot to speak a powerful message in behalf of that merciful Lord Who had saved both him and them? Did he ever fully understand and appreciate the effectiveness of his prayer in the eleventh hour? Nothing said anywhere. How easy to wipe off the perspiration of anxiety and fluttering excitement from the brow, after the "close shave"—and forget the obligations that, by rights, we should feel. Every "Zoar", and we all have them, should be a temple of praise, not a den of forgetfulness; the occasion for "turning a new leaf" of closer attachment to the rescuer, not merely a shift of scenery to carry on in the old style. Did Lot heed it? Heed the particular drift of grace, when Abraham, the faithful with his mighty prayer was turned down, and he, the lukewarm, the pretty mixer with promiscuous godless elements, for social prestige or filthy lucre, had his petition granted? The Shepherd leaving, as it were, the ninety-nine sheep and setting out to find the one almost lost? Did He find it? Lot drops from history with this chapter.

The balmy evening last Sunday brought out quite a number to attend the program of the Luther League. It came off with the usual brilliance and a greater number of substitutes than heretofore. No harm done. These off-hand offerings often bring out latent talents. A novelty was the accordion accompaniment by Miss Eileen Hartman for one of the vocal numbers. Soon we'll hear more of that, we hope. Every number was appreciated. Miss Aleen Grell was welcomed as a new member. Fine, may others follow soon. The steering committee for the Thanksgiving Day program was appointed. Mrs. Alfred Boehle, the Misses Lucille Bohlén, Della Saathoff, Margaret Reitzer, and the Messrs. Alfred Boehle, Elmer Saathoff, Elmer Saathoff and Elmer Nietenhoefer. Plenty of work ahead of them. After this, the programs will be given on the second Sunday of the month. Here are the assignments for next time: Recitations, Miss Edna Loessberg, Harold Weeber; select readings, Miss Della Saathoff, Marvin Grell; vocal selections, Mrs. Oscar Haby, Walter Grell; instrumental number, Mrs. Hy. Schuehle. The standing numbers are otherwise assigned.

Robert B. Breiten carries his arm in a sling, a hard restriction for this active lad. And all happened at play on the school grounds, we hear. Youth and vitality all in his favor, as it is for another patient, Earl Balzen, who was stricken with an attack of pneumonia, and away from home at that. Those jolts in life often begin early. A speedy recovery to both of you!

Announcements for October the 20th: Mission festival, English service at 10:30; Sunday school and Bible classes as usual; the German evening service will be in charge of the Rev. K. Konzack, at 7:15. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him. Ps. 145:18.

W. P. A. WORK PROGRESSING.

Commissioner Alfred A. Bader informs us that the W. P. A. workers now engaged in road work in Commissioner Precinct No. 1 received their first pay check Wednesday of this week. These checks are being paid for work done on approved projects in lieu of direct relief and only those unemployed who were on the relief rolls are eligible to employment on this work.

The work for which the first payment was made was done on the Sand Crossing on the Hondo just below the Smith ranch, where a low-water bridge is being constructed. The first concrete was poured on this job Wednesday.

Mr. Bader informed us that in addition to paying the labor costs on this structure, the W. P. A. has donated a carload of re-inforcing steel, a carload of lumber and a carload of cement.

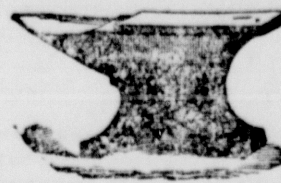

In all there are eleven approved bridge projects in Precinct 1, ten of them low-water structures and one high bridge. In all these structures, the W. P. A. furnishes material and labor and the county furnishes the supervision, machinery for use, etc.

This is a work of genuine relief for the floods of last May had done heavy damage to many crossings and local funds were not available for the repairs.

FOR SALE.

MANAGING EDITOR.

Street talk has it that a business deal of more importance to Hondo than any taking place here in many years is under negotiation but this paper is without authority to give any details at this stage. It is to be hoped that whatever the outcome of the negotiations, the welfare of Hondo will be best served by the results.

NO INCREASED TAXES!

In his announcement of September 29, President Roosevelt said that improving business had fortified the government's financial position. He forecast that the curves of tax collections and federal expenditures would soon meet, and predicted that the deficits for the next two fiscal years would be much less than were originally estimated. He then said that it was highly unlikely that any new or increased taxes would be necessary.

If future experience bears out the President's opinions, the United States will have reason to feel a great surge of encouragement. Today the average business man has an almost entire lack of confidence in the government's fiscal policies. He has seen tax increase after tax increase imposed on him. He is now bearing a burden that tends to make many business operations profitless, and the fear of new or still higher taxes is an insurmountable barrier to expansion, investment and the employment of labor.

The increase in normal federal tax revenue that has occurred in the last year has presented the federal government with a splendid opportunity. It is in a position to give back to business much of the confidence it has lost, and to give the country a chance to reap the fruits of accelerated industrial activity. It can do this in two ways—first, in the manner indicated by the President, by sternly deciding against additional taxes. Second, and of equal importance, it should effect every possible economy in order to use the largest possible share of its regular tax income to reduce the astounding deficit and thus to eventually cut existing taxes.

That policy should be followed as well by state, county and municipal governments, which, according to experts, have pursued more irresponsible fiscal programs than the federal government. NOT UNTIL EVERY TAX-COLLECTING UNIT CUTS COSTS, and starts on an aggressive course of budget-balancing, CAN PROGRESS TOWARD RECOVERY ATTAIN MAXIMUM SPEED.—Industrial News Review.

IN THE HOUSE OF THE ENEMY.

The people of the United States have been behaving like good soldiers in the face of a severe attack by a supposedly overwhelming enemy.

They have stood by their guns in following leaders who were employed by the people to guide them out of a seeming wilderness.

Our citizens have listened to the reports of many political scouts who have advised them to follow this course or that course to circumvent the enemy of depression.

Time has dragged by and our people have held back the enemy.

But they are awakening to the fact that scouts in whom they placed confidence and generals on whom they relied for leadership, have, knowingly or unknowingly, played into the hands of the enemy by discouraging and weakening the initiative and financial resources of the citizens of the country, through legislation, restrictions and experiments which actually discourage investment and employment, and encourage confiscatory taxation.

The enemy of depression thrives and gains strength under plans and legislative acts which destroy private initiative and enterprise in the United States.

Our citizens who have been good soldiers, are beginning to see this. More and more they are beginning to realize that they will have to pay all the bills for all the schemes proposed by all the scouts and all the generals whom they have followed.

They are beginning to realize that they will have to work and produce new wealth in order to destroy the foe depression. They are also beginning to realize that they cannot spend their way into prosperity, because every dollar comes out of their own pockets.

Experience furnishes an object lesson that is never forgotten by those affected.—Industrial News Review.

DEVINE NEWSLETS

From The Devine News.
LOCAL HIGHWAY BONDS MAY BE PAID BY STATE.

It is already well known and published time and again in The News
that the state has been assuming the highway bonds voted by counties in building the main highways. The most of our past indebtedness has been assumed in this way, and it is believed the $20,000 we are to vote
next week will be taken care of in the same way. County Judge Noon-
an was here Sunday attending the St. Joseph celebration and told this editor he had been to Austin the past week and had seen Representative Caladwell, and had reported out of the committee on roads and highways, a
bill favoring the assumption by the state of the expense incurred in this
way. Of course, we do not know for sure that this will be done, but everything points now in that direction and
we may not have to pay a single dollar of the $20,000 we may vote for
these two main highway routes
through our county and precinct.
Commissioner Roberson is sure that
No. 2 will be put through and he and Judge Noonan are now concentrating efforts on Highway No. 173 from Hondo via Devine to Jourdanston. Mr.
Roberson told The News man Saturday.

SURVEYING TO BEGIN DEVINE-
JOURDANTON ROAD.

In a circular letter we hope to publish in this issue, if we have the space,
you will see that surveyors are to be put to work on the Jourdanston end of Highway No. 173 at once.

going an operation for appendicitis.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain"
Remedy You Use
is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's
Well-Being to Unknown
Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family
are taking for the relief of headaches
is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most
"pain" remedies were advised
against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart.
Which is food for thought if you
seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists make Bayer Aspirin
among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches
and the pains of rheumatism, neu-ritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved
it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer
Aspirin at any drug store — simply
by asking for it by its full name,
BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this — and see that you get what you want.

Mr. Taylor, who represented a branch of the poultry department of the A. & M. College, came out last Wednesday evening. Owing to other arrangements of the people of the community, the crowd was small but
the lecture was very instructive along
the line of poultry raising. Combatting diseases, and other helpful ideas
were brought out. We hope the next lecture will have a larger attendance.

Friday night the classes of the H.

Meredith C. Jones to W. E. Sorrell, et ux, deed to 53.01 acres out of northwest corner of Robert Atkinson Survey No. 5. $10.00 and other good and valuable consideration.

HONDO, NOT RIO HONDO.

The following is taken from the Houston Chronicle, as written by a sports writer on that paper:

I received a lesson in geography this morning from J. Frank Jungman, vice president of the Citizens State Bank. He inclosed a clipping of my account of the Rice Freshman 24 to victory over Lamar Junior College of Beaumont.

In it I said "Mechler, a hard-driving back from Hondo; Schuehle, a fine kicking back from the same valley town; Paul Hancock, plunging fullback from El Campo, and Chester Chonowski, Hondo back, stood out in the backfield, along with Sullivan."

In the letter was a map showing that Hondo lies 40 miles west of San Antonio, and is a far cry from the valley. The Rio Grande town is Rio Hondo, 20 miles from Brownsville.

"Mechler and Schuehle are my own proteges, hence my interest to correct the inclosed clipping," Mr. Jungman writes. "Mechler and Schuehle (of Hondo) are going places with Rice, so you scribbles may as well know where they are from."

Mr. Jungman attended Hondo High School back in 1915 before going to Rice. And he's right about the two backs. They are fine-looking prospects.

LAUGHS, LOVE, SENTIMENT MARK DRAMA.

Engagingly sentimental, wholeheartedly appealing, "The Virginia Judge," film version of Walter C. Kelly's internationally known stage character, opens Monday and Tuesday at the Colonial Theatre, is a happy combination of gay comedy, heart-warming drama and unsophisticated romance, a simple story of small town life in the Tidewater country of Virginia.

Kelly himself, in the title role, contributes a noteworthy characterization as the lovable judge whose court room is the center of many bits of philosophical, but sarcastic, humor as he pronounces sentence on the many darkies who appear before him.

Marsha Hunt, young screen sensation, makes her film debut in this production as the attractive belle of a little Southern town.

Stepin Fetchit, beloved sepiant, romps away with the comedy's more amusing moments with an hilarious interpretation as the community's harmless but troublesome bad boy.

Johnny Downs and Robert Cummings, as the two juvenile leads, are pleasing and capable in their respective roles.

RIOMEDINA NEWS.

Allen Huegele of San Antonio visited homefolks at Yellow Banks Sunday.

Misses Thelma and Alta Huegele spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Mechler at Lytle.

Those from here who attended the dance at Twin Mountain Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Alf J. Wurzbach, Jr. and Mrs. Felix C. Stinson and Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Mangold.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wurzbach and son, Joe visited relatives at San Antonio Sunday.

Mrs. Aug. Lutz and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wolf of D'Hanis visited Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Haby and family and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burrell at Yellow Banks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. R. Wurzbach spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Seidenberger at Shiner.

Mrs. Alf. Rihn attended the funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mills at San Antonio Wednesday.

Mrs. Chas. Wurzbach and daughters and Miss Gussie and Stella Wilson visited Mr. O. W. Huegele at Yellow Banks Saturday.

Marlin, October 14.—United States Senator Tom Connally is sailing from Seattle on October sixteenth for the Philippines to attend the inauguration of the first president of the new island republic. He is accompanied by his son, Ben Connally, an attorney of Houston.

Senator Connally is one of a group of American officials who were invited by the new Philippine government to attend the ceremonies. The party will be headed by Vice-President John N. Garner, Speaker Joseph W. Byrns and Secretary of War George H. Dern. The group will sail on the S. S. President Grant and will go first to Yokohama, Japan, from whence they will visit Tokyo and Kooe. Proceeding from Japan, the next stop will be Shanghai and then Hong Kong. The party will arrive at Manila on November eighth. The inauguration is on the fifteenth, and the American officials will leave Manila on the twentieth. On the return trip they will stop at the same ports in the Orient again and then visit Honolulu. Returning, they will reach Seattle aboard the S. S. President Jefferson on December fourteenth.

The Texas Senator is a ranking member of the powerful Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate, and at present has two other important assignments on sub-committees of the Senate having to do with world affairs. One of these is the special sub-committee considering the proposals to "take the profits out of war", of which Senator Connally is chairman, and the other is the sub-committee which handled the recent neutrality legislation in Congress.

Upon their return from the trip, Senator Connally and Mr. Connally will return to Texas immediately and the Senator will remain in the state until the next session of Congress convenes on January third.

OFF TO PHILIPPINES.

Vice President and Mrs. John N. Garner left Uvalde the latter part of last week for Seattle, Wash., from which point they sailed Oct. 16 for a trip to the Philippine Islands, Japan and China, according to The Uvalde Leader-News.

The Vice President will represent the United States at the inauguration of Manuel Luis Quezon as first president of the Philippine republic. To Mr. Garner, the inauguration will be of unusual significance, since Quezon was resident commissioner of the Philippines for several years while Garner was a member of the House of Representatives. The two became good friends during that time. It will also be the realization of a cherished hope which Garner has entertained ever since he first went to Congress more than thirty years ago, that of Philippine independence.

When Garner first entered the race for Congress in the old 15th District, one of the platform pledges was the independence of the islands and he has steadfastly worked for it since.

It will also be the first extended trip Mr. Garner has ever made from the United States. As a member of the House Appropriations Committee he visited the Panama Canal a short time before the project was completed, and another visit was made shortly after the canal was opened. Except for these two trips and an occasional fishing and hunting trip to Mexico, he has never been outside the United States.

Following the visit to the Philippines, Mr. and Mrs. Garner will sail for Japan and China, and will be received by the Japanese Mikado at Tokyo.

They will return to the United States in December and go direct from the West Coast to Washington to be present at the opening of Congress.

NOTICE TO BONDHOLDERS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 20th day of November, 1935, the Commissioners' Court of Medina County, Texas, will exercise its option to redeem the following described bonds:

SPECIAL ROAD BONDS OF ROAD DISTRICT NUMBER TWO OF MEDINA COUNTY, TEXAS, numbers 22 to 80 inclusive, aggregating $29,500.00, of an issue of forty bonds, aggregating $40,000, dated April 10, 1915, due forty years after date, bearing interest at 5 per cent per annum, and optional at any time after five years from date by giving thirty days written notice to the holders.

Said bonds will be paid at the State Treasury, in Austin, Texas, on the 20th day of November, 1935, and all bonds herein described not presented for payment shall cease to bear interest from and after said date so fixed for redemption.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSIONERS' COURT OF MEDINA COUNTY, TEXAS, this 14th day of October, 1935.

O. J. BADER,
County Treasurer, Medina County, Texas.

Fall gardens are being planted this month by 4-H club girls. Last week, Ruby Nell Harlin, member of the Bloomdale 4-H club in Collin county, planted black eyed peas in her garden. The preparation of the soil is different from the spring garden in that all vegetation was taken off before the plowing was done, according to Ruby Nell. "The vegetation," she explained, "causes the soil to heat, and thus makes the soil dry." The soil was plowed about three or four inches deep before the seed were planted. Since germination of seed does not take place as well in the summer as in the spring, Ruby Nell planted about one-fourth more seed.

Terrace or contour lines have been run on 2210 acres for seven Hartley county farmers during the past two months. Interest in this work has been stimulated by the need for an effective control of wind erosion. Most of the farmers have received a heavy rain since completing their contour work, and the fact that the contoured rows held all the water that fell on the fields is interesting to other farmers in these demonstrations. Two farmers have terraced their pasture land, and they have found that in this way they can hold water on their pasture that normally goes to shallow lakes.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Medina.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That by virtue of a certain Order of Sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of Medina County, on the 9th day of October A. D. 1935, by Emil Britsch, Clerk of said Court, for sum of Twenty Thousand Two Hundred and Fourteen and 15-100 ($20,214.15) Dollars and costs of suit, under a judgment and foreclosure of a vendor's lien, in favor of John Muennink in a certain cause in said Court, No. 3385 and styled John Muennink vs. Mrs. Edith Turner et al, placed in my hands for service, I, Chas. J. Schuehle as Sheriff of Medina County, Texas, did, on the 10th day of October, 1935, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Medina County, Texas, described as follows, to-wit:

330.4 acres out of Survey No. 221, H. E. & W. T. Ry. Co.; 324.3 acres out of Survey No. 222, L. F. Rothe; 320 acres out of Survey No. 223, J. E. and W. Davenport; 320 acres out of Survey No. 224, H. E. & W. T. Ry. Co.; 348.7 acres out of Survey No. 343, H. E. & W. T. Ry. Co.; 149.7 acres out of Survey No. 29, F. Rothe & Bros.; 1 acre out of Survey No. 342, State; 191.3 acres out of Survey No. 341, F. Rothe & Bros. Aggregating a total of 1985 acres of land known as the T. W. Turner Ranch, located about 14 miles Northwest of the Town of Hondo, on the waters of the Hondo Creek.

Said land being levied on as the property of defendant, Mrs. Edith Turner, individually and as Independent Executrix of the Estate of T. W. Turner, deceased; and also as the property or the interest therein of the other defendants herein, the Commercial Investment Company of Uvalde, Texas, and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, who hold a junior and inferior lien, as against the plaintiff herein, on said land and premises; and that on the first Tuesday in November 1935, the same being the 5th day of said month, at the Court House door of Medina County, in the Town of Hondo, Texas, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., by virtue of said levy and said Order of Sale I will sell said above described Real Estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said Mrs. Edith Turner, individually and as Independent Executrix of the Estate of T. W. Turner, deceased, and the Commercial Investment Company of Uvalde, Texas, and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Hondo Anvil Herald, a newspaper published in Medina County.

Witness my hand, this 10th day of October A. D. 1935.

CHAS. J. SCHUEHLE, Sheriff Medina County, Texas.

THE DOCTORS ARE RIGHT

Women should take only liquid laxatives

Many believe any laxative they might take only makes constipation worse. And that isn't true.

Do what doctors do to relieve this condition. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why your laxative should be in liquid form. A liquid dose can be regulated to the drop.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara—both natural laxatives that form no habit even with children. Syrup Pepsin is the nicest tasting, nicest acting laxative you ever tried.

DIGEST OF STATE LAWS AND FEDERAL REGULATIONS ON MIGRATORY BIRDS.

Mourning doves: Open season, north zone, September 21st to October 31st, and south zone, December 1st to January 5th. Bag limit, 15 a day and 45 a week but not more than 20 in possession at any one time. Daily shooting hours, 7 A. M. to sunset. May be taken with shot-gun, only, not more than ten-gauge or not capable of holding more than three shells. Must not lure birds with or by grain or food products. Special law provides open seasons December 1st to January 5th in following counties: Bastrop, Brazos, Eufaula, Fayette, Grimes, Lee, Limestone, Milan, Montgomery, Robertson, San Jacinto, Smith, Washington and Wood.

Waterfowl: Open season, wild ducks of all kinds (except wood duck, ruddy duck and buffhead duck for which there is no open season) coot, geese, brant, Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, November 20th to December 19th. Shooting period, 7 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Bags and Possession Limits. Ducks—Ten in the aggregate of all kind and may not possess more than ten of all kinds.

Geese and brant—four in the aggregate of all kinds and may not possess more than four of all kinds.

Woodcock—Four and may not possess more than four.

Coot—Fifteen and may not possess more than fifteen.

Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe—Fifteen and may not possess more than fifteen.

Means by Which Water Fowl May Be Taken.

Shot-gun, only, of not more than ten-gauge and not capable of holding more than three shells.

From the land of water with the aid of a dog, and from a blind or boat or floating craft of any kind, except as hereinafter provided, not more than 100 feet from the shore line as determined by ordinary high tide or where there is natural growth or vegetation extending beyond such shore line, not more than 100 feet from such growth of vegetation protruding above the surface of the water at the time of taking such birds; but migratory birds are not permitted to be taken from or by the aid of an automobile, airplane, sink-box (battery), powerboat, sailboat, any boat under sail, any floating craft or device of any kind towed by power boat or sailboat. Birds must not be lured or attracted by the use of grain, salt or any kind of food or the use of live waterfowl decoys.

Rails (except coots): Open season, September 1st to November 30th with bag limit of 15 in the aggregate of all kinds and must not possess more than 15 at any one time.

FOR SALE.

Recleaned seed oats, free of Johnson grass seed. R. J. MANGOLD, LaCoste, Texas. 4tc.

WHY NOT?

Millions upon millions of acres of fertile land lies idle, which, if supplied with water, holds a bountiful living for the ones who must cram their families in 2x4 shacks and be known as "casas" on the relief rolls.

God created the earth for man and his use, and it is sad to see the thousands of honest hard-working men who cannot ever hope to own so much as one acre. Let's stop spending money on adornment and start building a string of immense store houses across the land, that will allow not so much as one precious bit of food to go to waste; then give, (give, a funny, obsolete word, almost) each family 160 acres of land, tax free. Oh no, that isn't crazy, that's just good sense.

Parallel to these great store houses let's build great reservoirs that will catch and hold the winter rains, and thus, stop the washing of lands. It is a senseless thing, when one thinks of it, that in a civilized, educated land, that sparkling rivers are allowed to run into the sea, as though the old world were not dying for the want of water. I sometimes wonder, are we civilized? Are we a God-serving Christian nation? (And God made man in His image!) Man can and will make his own way, if he has access to land and water, and he cannot make his way, if denied God's gifts to man.

Give the people a chance. It would be far better to have idle land occupied with industrious families, and far better the laughter of little children than the cry of the coyotes over a barren, lifeless waste of ground. —TUMBLEWEED.

IT'S HOME TOWN SERVICE

The best part about your telephone service is that it's home town service—tailor-made for you at the switchboard by people who live and work here.

Experts on American Telephone & Telegraph Company's headquarters staff can develop better methods of giving you service. Scientists of Bell Telephone Laboratories can contribute new inventions and scientific developments. Western Electric can buy and manufacture economically for the 24 operating companies of the Bell System.

And all of these things can—and do—help us tremendously at the job of giving you good telephone service at a fair cost.

Yet not one of them could replace the qualities of friendliness and neighborliness which grow out of the fact that the men and women who operate the telephones here belong to and are part of this community.

You can't measure those qualities. You can't set them down on monthly reports. Yet they have a large part in the job of providing telephone service.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Confirmation, which means to establish, make firm, is a rite in the Lutheran Church performed by the pastors, and follows upon a period of instruction. The baptismal vow which was spoken by the sponsors, is renewed and ratified in confirmation. The child learns how it became a child of God and how it may remain such, and personally makes a confession of this faith and promises are renewed to be true to the Christian belief and the Church. "Whosoever therefore shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before My Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny Me before men, him will I also deny before My Father which is in heaven." Matt. 10, 32-33.

The class which will be confirmed on Sunday consists of the following: Clinton Grell, Amanda Haass, Essner Koehler, Samuel Koehler, Harold Moehring, Virginia Moehring, Wesley Moehring, Melba Mussmann, Roland Nester, Arnold Saathoff, Edgar Saathoff, Rick Saathoff, Leslie Schlentz, Zella Schweers, and Ralph Stiegler.

The above class has organized itself into a Junior Luther League with the first regular meeting to be held Sunday night, Oct. 27. "Son, give Me thine heart."

Sunday, October 20, confirmation services at 10:00 A. M. Sunday school and Bible class meet at 9:00 A. M. Service at Sprotville at 2:30 P. M.

Sunday, Oct. 27, English service with Holy Communion. Not only the new members but others also shall be privileged to take this opportunity. It will take the place of our regular Reformation Communion.

AUTO RACES.

The auto races at the Fair Grounds last Sunday were disappointing both in the number of entries in the races and in the size of the crowd, but the program was carried out as promised and the fans were entertained with some thrilling races, all splendidly managed, and run without any serious mishap.

The management was deserving of a better patronage, but, undaunted, a continuation of the program as advertised for next Sunday was promised on the grounds.

PUBLIC SERVICE Company

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF TEXAS.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

WHEREAS, the State of Texas will be host to many thousands of visitors from over the country during the coming year of our Centennial Celebration and

WHEREAS, in anticipation of those visitors every effort should be made to put our house in order so that the natural beauty of our state may not be blemished by unsightly elements, and

WHEREAS, such efforts may well be directed toward the cleaning up of all rubbish, junk, and other things that may mar the appearance of our highways and roads along which our visitors will gather their first impression of Texas,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES V. ALLRED, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim the week of October 21st to 26th, 1935, as

CLEAN-UP WEEK

and call to the attention of all committees and individuals the value of such industry as may be necessary on their part to present the best possible appearance of their locality for the benefit of the future travelers who will partake of the hospitality of our state.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be impressed hereon at Austin, Texas, this 27th day of September, A. D. 1935.

(signed) JAMES V. ALLRED,
Governor of Texas.

In cooperation with the Citizen's Organization for Highway Beautification to get our State cleaned up for 1936, it is urged that all householders make every effort possible to clean up for health as well. Every effort should be made to eradicate potential mosquito breeding places, by draining all water pools are oiled those that cannot be drained; all tin cans and receptacles that can hold water should be flattened out or punched with holes and carted from the premises. Also destroy the weeds on or around your homes, especially the rag weed.

W. H. SMITH,
Medina County Health Officer.

This department urges that in Hondo's clean-up week endeavors that precautionary measures be taken to prevent fires. Cut the weeds on your premises before a frost makes dry tinder of them. Be careful of trash heaps that you must burn on your property. All combustibles should be hauled away or burned under rigid supervision.

Yours for cooperation,
HONDO VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPT.

CLEAN-UP WEEK FOR HONDO

The Centennial Board has appealed to the Citizens' Organizations for Highway Beautification to get the State of Texas cleaned up for 1936. Governor Allred has issued a proclamation, which appears elsewhere in this paper, designating the days from October 21st to October 26th as "Clean-Up Week".

Mrs. Jack Lacy, chairman of Medina County in the Highway Beautification work, and Mrs. R. J. Nolan, local chairman for Hondo, have requested that the county newspaper,

USED BY COURTESY OF THE OWL

Owl's Hoot At Bulldogs' Barking.

Hondo's fighting Owls took a 21-6 decision over Somerset Friday afternoon. With the exception of several very costly fumbles, the Owls played very well.

About the end of the initial quarter an alert Owl blocked a punt on the Somerset twenty-five yard line. It bounded across the goal line and Somerset recovered, which gave the Owls a safety instead of a touchdown, which they would have made, had they recovered. This gave the Owls a 2-0 lead. At the end of the first quarter Hondo had possession of the ball deep in Somerset territory, but they failed to make a touchdown on the first few plays of the second quarter. Late in the same quarter the Owls scored on a long end run by Finger. Oefinger's try for conversion was wide.

In the third quarter Somerset scored after several passes and consistent gains through the line. The pass for the extra point was blocked. This touchdown seemed to put the fighting spirit in the Owls, as, after the kickoff, they marched right down the field to score another touchdown. The Owls made good gains through the line and around the end, and their passing attack also began to "click". The touchdown came as the result of a completed pass, Windrow to Finger. Oefinger's try for the extra point was good.

Again in the final quarter the Owls made a long march down the field to end by making another six points. The touchdown again came as the result of a pass, Windrow to Finger. Oefinger's try for extra point was wide.

J. H. Rothe was unable to play in Friday's game because of a sore leg. Everyone hopes to see him in the game again next Friday when the Owls take on the Devine Warhorses.

DISTRICT FOOTBALL.

Del Rio was slowed down slightly in the game Friday. They scored only 31 points on Carrizo Springs. Carrizo's chances for a win in the south half were dimmed somewhat by the loss of one of their best players. He had two bones broken in his hand.

The Uvalde Coyotes took a rest and were probably all on the sidelines at the Carrizo game.

Hondo has been scouted very little this year. We wonder why the lack of interest. When some of these green boys get a few more games under their belt they will bear watching.

Scores last week:
Crystal City 39, Eagle Pass 0.
Devine 13, South San Antonio 7.
Hondo 21, Somerset 6.
Del Rio 31, Carrizo Springs 0.
Pearsall 21, Asherton 6.
Sabinal 14, Natalia 0.

Games next week:
Thursday; at Hondo, Boogeroos vs. Natalia.
Friday; Devine at Hondo.
Uvalde at Pearsall.
Del Rio at Sabinal.

Hondo fans will be looking forward to the return of J. H. Rothe to the line-up. If no more injuries develop he should be in there against Devine.

We understand that Devine features spins and reverses. Hondo ends please note.

The Owl secondary looked bad against the Somerset passing game. There was little excuse for that Somerset score.

Langston of Devine is one of the fastest backs in the district. If he ever breaks loose around end it will simply be bad news for the Owls.

The Boogeroos are getting set for Natalia's visit here Thursday afternoon. Both teams lost a game last week and each is out for a win. Coach Barry is not giving the Boogeroos any new plays. They make up new plays as they need them during the game.

Did you hear that neat play in the S. M. U.-Washington game? A Mustang back intercepted a Washington pass and ran some thirty yards. As he was tackled he flipped a lateral to Wilson, another back, and Wilson ran another thirty yards to score. That's heads-up football.

OWLS—SECOND GRADE.

The second grade walls are attractively decorated with pumpkins and Hallowe'en witches.

Brackenridge "B" Defeats Boogeroos.

The Brackenridge B team which invaded Hondo Thursday evening returned to San Antonio with a 14-6 victory over the Boogeroos. The Boogs played fairly well during the game but they showed a lack of power and experience, both those in the line and those in the backfield.

In the first quarter Brackenridge recovered a fumble on the Boogs' thirty yard line. Early in the second quarter after a series of line plays the Eagles carried the ball across the goal line. A pass for the extra point was good.

After the kickoff following the first touchdown, Hondo advanced the ball to mid-field by means of a completed pass and an end run. From here the ball was passed, Muennink to Zerr, and was carried across the Eagles' goal line, aided by good blocking by Neuman. A pass was tried for the extra point but it was incomplete.

The Eagles scored again later in the game after another series of line plays. The touchdown came, however, as the result of a completed pass. Again a pass for the extra point was good.

The remainder of the game was scoreless. Hondo made more first downs than Brackenridge and few penalties when compared to theirs.

OWLS—IMPRESSIONS OF THE BOOGEROO-BRACKENRIDGE GAME.

Zerr's hard-driving ball carrying... Huesser throwing the S. A. boys behind the line... Hull standing up looking into the bleachers during the huddle... Muennink's "hope" passes... Mumme getting tough with that little Brackenridge substitute... Jungman making a tackle and getting chesty about it... the Brackenridge coach being upset about the Boogeroo seven man line as his boys were not coached to block one... Muennink's spectacular 10-yard punt... Renken falling down... star players against Hondo during the last half; B. Durham, Ripple, and P. Albert... and that Boogeroo blocking!!!!

OWLS—SQUIBS.

Anna L. Welhausen, Sis Merritt and Billy Merritt saw "Broadway Melody of 1936" in San Antonio Sunday.

Zonie Taylor spent the week-end with Gwen Gray at Dunlay.

Luke Palmer and Stanley Sherman of San Antonio visited Fern Ulbrich and Jackie Bradley Sunday.

Miss Adams spent the week-end in Waco.

Miss Claypool was in San Antonio Sunday. 'Tis rumored that she was not alone.

Miss Kathryn Weir of Austin visited her cousin, Miss Stubbs, this week-end.

Harvey Renken and Monroe Langford were in Crystal City Sunday night.

Kathryn Coffey spent the week-end in Comstock.

Paul Cook Simmons and Gene Corder of Sabinal visited Earline Watson and Ada Belle Carter Sunday evening.

The freshmen class welcomes a new pupil, Calvin Bendele.

OWLS—FARMERS HOLD INITIATION.

The Hondo Chapter, F. F. A., held its first regular initiation last Monday night. Twenty-nine new members were admitted into the chapter.

The meeting was opened with the regular opening ceremony and the initiation was the first business brought before the house. The fifteen charter members performed the initiation ceremony on the new members. Twenty-nine new members were initiated, bringing the number in the chapter up to forty-four.

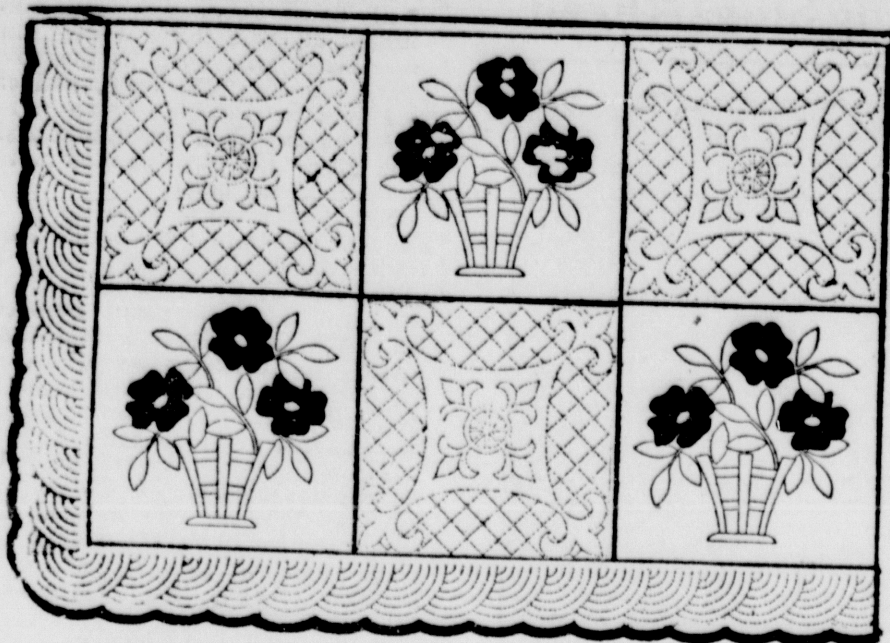

The regular bi-monthly business meeting was then held, and among the business transacted was: (1) It was decided that a committee be appointed to thank Mr. Arthur Ney for fixing our banner; (2) it was decided the chapter conduct a raffle to raise more money for the treasury; (3) and it was decided that Miss Billie Merritt, our sweetheart, be awarded a bronze Greenhand pin.

The meeting then resolved itself into a discussion of exhibiting agricultural products and conducting a project show at the fair grounds Nov. 11. Meeting adjourned.

OWLS—FIRST GRADE.

We have been making new workbooks along with Hallowe'en owls and witches. We are just finishing our first primer. Margaret Ann Laughinghouse and Ducky Ulbrich have been sick during the week.

S. F. CLUB ENTERTAINS.

The S. F. Club entertained with a Bunco party Saturday night, October 5, at the home of Frances Ruth Fly. The front rooms were beautifully decorated with white and cream colored roses and fern. The guests enjoyed playing Bunco and other games throughout the evening.

Delicious refreshments of lemonade and various kinds of sandwiches were served to Helen Burgin, Betty Jean Merriman, Kathleen Reilly, Sue Muennink, Elizabeth Reynolds, Evelyn Ruth Dawson, Eva Mae Hull, Fay Iris Carter, J. H. Rothe, Tommy Danie, Burnell Rihn, Harry Freeman, Bonnard Rothe, Bob Zerr, Burleigh Smith, Jack Fitzpatrick, Babo Windrow, and the hostess, Frances Ruth Fly.

OWLS—SUB-DEB CLUB.

The Sub-Deb Club met Wednesday afternoon at the club room with Miss Gwen Gray as hostess.

Plans for decorating the new club room were discussed. It was decided to use the club dues to pay for drapes and other furnishings.

Miss Gray served refreshments to the following members and Microbes: Misses Evelyn Barnes, Jo Reilly, Anna L. Welhausen, Evelyn Knopp, Roseina Taylor, Ginger Fusselman, Billy Merritt, Susie Muennink, Frances Taylor, Betty J. Merriman, Frances R. Fly, Mary Elizabeth Meyer, and little Miss Anne Reilly, a guest.

Kathleen Reilly will be the next hostess.

OWLS—FRESHMAN PICNIC.

King's Water Hole was the site for the Freshman picnic Friday evening after the football game. The refreshments consisted of sandwiches, fruit and lemonade. Several went in swimming. Two of the guests came on horses, so some went horseback riding. A large bonfire was built, and everyone sat around it and talked.

MARSHMALLOW ROAST.

Wanda and J. B. Redmond entertained with a marshmallow roast at their home Saturday evening beginning at seven o'clock.

Those enjoying the evening were Jackie Bradley, Babo Windrow, Tommy Danie, Eva Earnest, the host, J. B., and the hostess, Wanda.

OWLS—P. T. A. MEETS.

The Hondo P. T. A. held its regular monthly meeting in the High School auditorium Monday afternoon, October 14, with Mrs. Starnes presiding. The first vice-president, Mrs. Scott had charge of the program. The first number was a song, "Beautiful Texas", by six girls. This song was in keeping with Texas Founders P. T. A. Day. Mrs. Aten then gave a talk on the Birthday of Texas Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations.

The third grade, with fourteen mothers present, won the book.

OWLS—FIFTH GRADE.

The Fifth Battalion is the center of beautiful cut flowers and some very pretty pot plants. Stella, Frances, Glenrose, Joe, Dolly, Ellen, and Walter have brought us pot plants. Four of our soldiers were on the hospital list last week. We are glad to have them back.

We have a set of new World Books that are used very much.

We fixed a Word Demons Box. If anybody uses bad English, we put the mistake in the box.

OWLS—FOURTH GRADE.

The Fourth Grade has made health posters this week. They are colorful and help make the wall look most attractive.

These posters include practically every health rule that we have. If these rules are observed we should have a very healthy Fourth Grade.

The Fourth Graders are interested in the study of Indians.

OWLS—EX-GRADUATE WEDS.

Fred Metzger, a 1927 graduate of Hondo High, was married to Miss Virginia Morris of Conroe, Texas, on the eighteenth of October. They are making their home in Houston. THE OWL Staff joins the students of Hondo High School in wishing them much happiness.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPART-MENT FUNCTIONING.

Of the varied assignments allotted this writer this week none gave quite so much pleasure as the visit to the Home Economics Department of Hondo High School during the first period Tuesday morning. Four years of high school deprived of the very things which the girls of Hondo High School are now privileged to have—thanks to a far-sighted Superintendent, a capable Board of Trustees and an industrious P. I. A.
—it was with deep envy and a wide-eyed, open-mouthed awe that we were introduced into the realms of household art and initiated into the secrets and mysteries of culinary skill in general and biscuit-making in particular.

The Home Economics Department is a new thing for Hondo High School, since its installation in September this year. The department is under the efficient direction and supervision of Miss Stubbs of Austin, Texas, a graduate of Texas University and a teacher with several years of successful and valuable experience. It has fallen upon her, as the initial instructor, to guide the department through its infancy to a successful maturity as a part of the curriculum of Hondo High School.
It is no mean task. She has the experience and the courage for it—all she needs is your enthusiasm and cooperation.

The course is arranged so as to include four groups of girls from the four high school grades. Each group meets every school day, alternating days for recitation and practical tests in the department's work-room or kitchen. Later they hope to add a combination living room-dining room to the kitchen laboratory. In this way book knowledge is strengthened by experience.

On this, our first visit, we were agreeably impressed with the pleasant surroundings in which the students work. The entire room is spotlessly white and clean, woodwork and equipment all in white and gleaming metal. There are, bulking largely to emphasize the steadfastness of purpose and practicability of the department, three gas stoves,
an electric stove, electric refrigerator,
white tables with supply cupboards, and a sink unit. With girls in bright smocks, and a graceful arrangement of purple jackbeans and pink queen's crown on a nearby table, an accent of color in the auburn surroundings, it was difficult to think anything so decorative could be very useful.

Immediately, however, the class set to work on the project for that period, that of making biscuits, and proved themselves to be very competent, and, along with the biscuit ingredients, to have the makings of very good cooks. The class functions efficiently and systematically. Members of the group were appointed floor hostess, supply hostess, refrigerator hostess, stove hostess, etc.,
their duties just what their names imply.

The supply hostess for that period allotted to each girl and her cooking mate the materials necessary in following the day's chosen recipe, and out from white tables came utensils and material for the process of biscuit-making. The breakfast unit is being studied at present and biscuit-making is one phase of the work. As soon as all parts of the unit are mastered, a complete breakfast will be prepared and served by the girls in the class.

After watching several of the girls industriously and confidently measuring flour, milk, etc., we reluctantly took our leave before the final results were reached. We were assured, however, that although each girl had to eat her own concoction, none had suffered indigestion. We are sure of it.

In fact, they all enjoy eating their own handiwork. Thus skillfully prepared and cooked under most modern and efficient conditions and served amid such delightful surroundings in a congenial atmosphere, how could it be otherwise?

CAR LOT SHIPMENTS.

Hondo has been doing a big export business in grain shipments this fall, thanks to the good crops. Shipments for the week ending October 17th have been as follows:

Corn, 14 cars, bringing the total for the season up to 113 cars of that grain.

Maize, 1 car; for the season 29.

Hegari, 4 cars; for the season 31.

Broom corn, 2 cars; for the season
40.

Total cars for the season 213.

These totals include shipments loaded out at Dunlay but billed from Hondo as well as those leaving from Hondo.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BENEFIT SUPPER.

The Hondo Chamber of Commerce will give a benefit supper at the Rath Building next to the Hondo State Bank on Saturday, Nov.
2nd. Supper will be served by the ladies of the town who are assisting the C. of C. Preparations will be made to accommodate the largest crowd ever to attend a similar event in Hondo. Chili, tamales and beans will form the main items on the menu. Supper will be served from five-thirty o'clock until seven-thirty.

The money raised from the supper will go to pay off the indebtedness on the Plaza Recreation Park, to help finance the buying of a new dump-ground site, and for incidental expenses of the C. of C.

Come out and support your local Chamber of Commerce organization.

(This space complimentary to the Chamber of Commerce.)

WEDS IN SAN SALVADOR.

The following account of the wedding of V. H. Blocker, Hondo boy, and Miss Hazel Silliman, which took place in San Salvador, Central America, is taken from The El Paso Times, issue of October 12th.

Marked with unusual beauty of appointment and picturesque details was the wedding of Miss Hazel Silliman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Silliman, 2630 Wheeling Street, El Paso, to Consul V. Harwood Blocker, which was solemnized in San Salvador, El Salvador, Central America.

The ceremony took place Sunday, October 6, at 7 A. M., between arrival and departure of the airplane, instead of in the American Legation on October 5, as first planned, due to a tropical storm which delayed the bridegroom's arrival.

Gen. Jose Trabanino, governor of San Salvador, officiated at the wedding vows, assisted by his official secretary.

Dr. Frank P. Corrigan, minister plenipotentiary, acted as witness for the bridegroom, while Mr. William W. Renwick, envoy extraordinary from the United States, was Mr.
Blocker's best man. Mr. Renwick is fiscal representative accredited to the government of El Salvador.

The bride's brother, Mr. E. R. Silliman, Jr., of San Salvador, representative of Pan-American Airways of Central America, gave her in marriage, and Mrs. Silliman was matron of honor to her sister-in-law.

The bride was lovely in a gray crepe frock, inset across the shoulders with real lace and fastened down
the front with rhinestone buttons.
The coat was trimmed with gray fox
fur. Accessories were dark blue, the hat assembly smart, being a poke bonnet with chin veil caught in front with a bouquet of French flowers.

Her bridal bouquet was of orchids, sent from Guatemala by plane for the occasion, and estafanates, a rare white bell cluster of flowers of which there are but two species in San Salvador.

Mrs. Silliman, the former Eleanor Hall of El Paso, was gowned in dark blue crepe, trimmed with white and made on straight lines. All accessories matched, and she carried a bouquet of shell pink and rose pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony
there followed a copa de champagne and the couple then left by plane for Belize, British Honduras, where they will remain prior to going to Mr.
Blocker's new station.

From the steps of the airplane the bride threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Carlotta Drews, charming young girl of San Salvador.

The ceremony was attended by a group of closest friends, including Mrs. Frank P. Corrigan, wife of the minister; Mr. William Pearson Cochran, vice consul of San Salvador, and diplomatic secretary to the legation of the United States in San Salvador, Mrs. Cochran; Mr. Dorsey Gassaway Fisher, diplomatic secretary to the legation of the United States;
his mother, Mrs. U. L. Fisher of Washington D. C.; Miss Violetta Guirola, Mr. Ana Maria V. de Drews and two daughters, Misses Elena and Carlotta; Mr. James Cordell, Mr. Cyril

WOODMEN ENTERTAIN.

The W. O. W. and the Woodmen Circle held a very successful meeting in Hondo, Texas, Friday night, October 10th. A large crowd was present to enjoy the fine program that was arranged by Sov. H. H. Crow, Financial Secretary. Mrs. Irene Purgason of San Antonio, a former radio artist and new director of the juvenile of San Antonio, sang several lovely songs. Miss Sis Merritt furnished quite a number of dances by her pupils which were enjoyed by the crowd.
Blue Bonnet Circle Degree Team,
State Champions, of San Antonio, Texas, exemplified the work in a very impressive manner as did the W. O. W. Degree Team of Somerset.

The feature of the program was the work of the juvenile team under the excellent supervision of Mrs.
Marguerite Murrill. The talks of Dr. Koerth, Superintendent of the W. O. W. Hospital, Mrs. Benken-dorfer, District Manager of District No.
35 and Guardian of Blue Bonnet Grove of San Antonio, Texas, with Mrs. Donehoe, National Director of the juveniles, and Miss Bessie Dolan, District Manager of District No. 11 and National Delegate of the Woodmen Circle, were enjoyed.

Mr. Bert Lyon, State Drill Master, assisted Consul Commander Dr. Tay-

QUIHI NOTES.

See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken. Gen. 19:21.

"Escape to the mountain", was the last hurly call given to Lot. Old and feeble, he fears the exertion will kill him. There is a small city within easier reach, Zoar. It lies in the path of destruction, but on top of the mercy already shown to him, Lot intensely pleads to have it spared for his refuge, his safety zone. It was not in vain. The text above contains the answer. Zoar was spared for his sake. The crusader's many centuries later, still found the place
under the name of Segor, a friendly village surrounded by many plum trees. Did the inhabitants of the place ever realize what turned their fate? What a chance for Lot to speak a powerful message in behalf of that merciful Lord Who had saved both him and them? Did he ever fully understand and appreciate the effectiveness of his prayer in the eleventh hour? Nothing said anywhere. How easy to wipe off the perspiration of anxiety and flustering excitement from the brow, after the "close shave"—and forget the obligations that, by rights, we should feel. Every "Zoar", and we all have them, should be a temple of praise,
not a den of forgetfulness; the occasion for "turning a new leaf" of closer attachment to the rescuer, not merely a shift of scenery to carry on in the old style. Did Lot heed it?
Heed the particular drift of grace, when Abraham, the faithful with his mighty prayer was turned down, and he, the lukewarm, the pretty mixer with promiscuous godless elements, for social prestige or filthy lucre, had his petition granted? The Shepherd leaving, as it were, the ninety-nine sheep and setting out to find the one almost lost? Did He find it? Lot drops from history with this chapter.

The balmy evening last Sunday brought out quite a number to attend the program of the Luther League. It came off with the usual brilliance and a greater number of substitutes than heretofore. No harm done. These off-hand offerings often bring out latent talents.
A novelty was the accordion accompaniment by Miss Eileen Hartman for one of the vocal numbers. Soon we'll hear more of that, we hope.
Every number was appreciated. Miss Aleen Grell was welcomed as a new member. Fine, may others follow soon. The steering committee for the Thanksgiving Day program was appointed. Mrs. Alfred Boehle, the Misses Lucille Bohnen, Della Saat-hoff, Margaret Reitzer, and the Messrs. Alfred Boehle, Ehme Saat-hoff, Elmer Saathoff and Elmer Nietenhoefer. Plenty of work ahead of them. After this, the programs will be given on the second Sunday of the month. Here are the assignments for next time: Recitations, Miss Edna Loessberg, Harold Weeb-er; select readings, Miss Della Saat-hoff, Marvin Grell; vocal selections, Mrs. Oscar Haby, Walter Grell; instrumental number, Mrs. Hy.
Schuchie. The standing numbers are otherwise assigned.

Robert B. Breiten carries his arm in a sling, a hard restriction for this active lad. And all happened at play on the school grounds, we hear.
Youth and vitality all in his favor,
as it is for another patient, Earl Balzen, who was stricken with an attack of pneumonia, and away from home at that. Those jolts in life often begin early. A speedy recovery to both of you!

Announcements for October the 20th: Mission festival, English service at 10:30; Sunday school and Bible classes as usual; the German evening service will be in charge of the Rev. K. Konzack, at 7:15. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him. Ps. 145:18.

W. P. A. WORK PROGRESSING.

Commissioner Alfred A. Bader informs us that the W. P. A. workers now engaged in road work in Commissioner Precinct No. 1 received their first pay check Wednesday of this week. These checks are being paid for work done on approved projects in lieu of direct relief and only those unemployed who were on the relief rolls are eligible to employment on this work.

The work for which the first payment was made was done on the Sand Crossing on the Hondo just below the Smith ranch, where a low-water bridge is being constructed.
The first concrete was poured on this job Wednesday.

Mr. Bader informed us that in addition to paying the labor costs on this structure, the W. P. A. has donated a carload of re-inforcing steel,
a carload of lumber and a carload of cement.

In all there are eleven approved bridge projects in Precinct 1, ten of them low-water structures and one high bridge. In all these structures, the W. P. A. furnishes material and labor and the county furnishes the supervision, machinery for use, etc.

This is a work of genuine relief for the floods of last May had done heavy damage to many crossings and local funds were not available for the repairs.

Street talk has it that a business deal of more importance to Hondo than any taking place here in many years is under negotiation but this paper is without authority to give any details at this stage. It is to be hoped that whatever the outcome of the negotiations, the welfare of Hondo will be best served by the results.

NO INCREASED TAXES!

In his announcement of September 29, President Roosevelt said that improving business had fortified the government's financial position. He forecast that the curves of tax collections and federal expenditures would soon meet, and predicted that the deficits for the next two fiscal years would be much less than were originally estimated. He then said that it was highly unlikely that any new or increased taxes would be necessary.

If future experience bears out the President's opinions, the United States will have reason to feel a great surge of encouragement. Today the average business man has an almost entire lack of confidence in the government's fiscal policies. He has seen tax increase after tax increase imposed on him. He is now bearing a burden that tends to make many business operations profitless, and the fear of new or still higher taxes is an insurmountable barrier to expansion, investment and the employment of labor.

The increase in normal federal tax revenue that has occurred in the last year has presented the federal government with a splendid opportunity.
It is in a position to give back to business much of the confidence it has lost, and to give the country a chance to reap the fruits of accelerated industrial activity. It can do this in two ways—first, in the manner indicated by the President, by sternly deciding against additional taxes. Second, and of equal importance, it should effect every possible economy in order to use the largest possible share of its regular tax income to reduce the astounding deficit and thus to eventually cut existing taxes.

That policy should be followed as well by state, county and municipal governments, which, according to experts, have pursued more irresponsible fiscal programs than the federal government. NOT UNTIL EVERY TAX-COLLECTING UNIT CUTS
COSTS, and starts on an aggressive course of budget-balancing, CAN PROGRESS TOWARD RECOVERY ATTAIN MAXIMUM SPEED.—Industrial News Review.

IN THE HOUSE OF THE ENEMY.

The people of the United States have been behaving like good soldiers in the face of a severe attack by a supposedly overwhelming enemy.

They have stood by their guns in following leaders who were employed by the people to guide them out of a seeming wilderness.

Our citizens have listened to the reports of many political scouts who have advised them to follow this course or that course to circumvent
the enemy of depression.

Time has dragged by and our people have held back the enemy.

But they are awakening to the fact that scouts in whom they placed confidence and generals on whom they relied for leadership, have, knowl-ingly or unknowingly, played into the hands of the enemy by discouraging and weakening the initiative and financial resources of the citizens of the country, through legislation, restrictions and experiments which actually discourage investment and employment, and encourage confisca-tory taxation.

The enemy of depression thrives and gains strength under plans and legislative acts which destroy private initiative and enterprise in the United States.

Our citizens who have been good soldiers, are beginning to see this.
More and more they are beginning to realize that they will have to pay all the bills for all the schemes proposed by all the scouts and all the generals whom they have followed.

They are beginning to realize that they will have to work and produce new wealth in order to destroy the foe depression. They are also beginning to realize that they cannot spend their way into prosperity, because every dollar comes out of their own pockets.

Experience furnishes an object lesson that is never forgotten by those affected.—Industrial News Review.

DEVINE NEWSLETS

From The Devine News.
BE PAID BY STATE.

It is already well known and published time and again in The News
that the state has been assuming the
highway bonds voted by counties in
building the main highways. The
most of our past indebtedness has
been assumed in this way, and it is
next week will be taken care of in
the same way. County Judge Noon-
an was here Sunday attending the
St. Joseph celebration and told this
week and had seen Representative Cudwell, and had reported out of the committee on roads and highways, a
bill favoring the assumption by the state of the expense incurred in this
way. Of course, we do not know for sure that this will be done, but everything points now in that direction and
these two main highway routes
through our county and precinct.
Commissioner Roberson is sure that
No. 2 will be put through and he and
Judge Noonan are now concentrating efforts on Highway No. 173 from Hondo via Devine to Jourdanton, Mr.
Roberson told The News man Satur-
day.

SURVEYING TO BEGIN DEVINE-
JOURDANTON ROAD.

In a circular letter we hope to publish in this issue, if we have the space,
you will see that surveyors are to be put to work on the Jourdanton end
of Highway No. 173 at once.

FROM BIRY.

Mr. Gordon McCorley and wife,
Master Leon Biry and Overton Schmidt attended the circus in San Antonio last Saturday night.

Mr. Henry Smith and Miss Dorothy Love of San Antonio were guests of Mrs. Alice Littleton Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Farrell of Hondo spent one evening last week with Miss Lucille Littleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bader and sons spent last Sunday in Dunlay with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bader.

Several from here attended the picnic at Schmidt's park Sunday.

Mrs. F. J. Biry and family spent the week-end in Castroville.

Rev. Deal of San Antonio spent the week-end with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Biediger are in Freer.

FROM YANCEY.

Latest reports from Arizona state that Mr. Arthur Bohmfalk is slowly recovering from complications following an appendectomy; he was able to be moved from the hospital to the home of his sister, Mrs. Vernon Ward. As soon as he regains his strength he will return home.

Mrs. S. P. Childress returned from a month's visit with her son, Polk, and family at Overton. She also visited a sister whom she had not seen for 22 years.

Mrs. N. F. Berry had several days quitting at her home last week. A number of ladies were present each day to lend a helping hand.

Mr. J. C. Wiemers came home one day last week from Hondo where he had spent several weeks, after undergoing an operation for appendicitis!

Don't Guess But Know

Remedy You Use
is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's
Well-Being to Unknown
Preparations

THE person to ask whether the
preparation you or your family
are taking for the relief of headaches
is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly
about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most
"pain" remedies were advised
against by physicians as bad for the
stomach and, often, for the heart.
Which is food for thought if you
seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin
among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches
and the pains of rheumatism, neu-
ritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved
it safe for the average person to use
regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer
Aspirin at any drug store—simply
by asking for it by its full name,
BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you
get what you want.

Mr. Taylor, who represented a branch of the poultry department of the A. & M. College, came out last Wednesday evening. Owing to other
community, the crowd was small but
the lecture was very instructive along
the line of poultry raising. Combat-
ting diseases, and other helpful ideas
were brought out. We hope the next
lecture will have a larger attendance.

Friday night the classes of the H.

Dr. Dixon, eye specialist called on a number of people here Tuesday.

Mr. Ed Faseler and family visited relatives near Uvalde last week-end.
Mr. J. G. weekly returned from a trip to East Texas and Louisiana.

Mrs. F. W. Bohmfalk and Mrs. Luella Ward were in Hondo last Saturday.

Mr. Coy Berry spent last week in San Antonio visiting his sister.

Mr. W. N. Baker is among the folks who went to the pecan grove with Mr.
McCrear. They are located at Water Valley.

Miss Ruth Hicks of San Antonio is visiting relatives here, and is staying at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Heilgman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Duncan visited
Mr. and Mrs. Gilson and family Friday.

Mrs. Philip Nixon and little daughter, Annette are at home after a short stay in Hondo.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ward spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Philip Nixon.

Rev. Banks and family were at Moore Sunday, where Bro. Banks has been conducting a series of meetings.

Mrs. J. M. McCaughan and son
Ralph were in Hondo on business on Monday.

HONDO, NOT RIO HONDO.

The following is taken from the Houston Chronicle, as written by a sports writer on that paper:

"I received a lesson in geography this morning from J. Frank Jungman, vice president of the Citizens State Bank. He inclosed a clipping of my account of the Rice Freshman 24 to 1 victory over Lamar Junior College of Beaumont.

"In it I said 'Mechler, a hard-driving back from Hondo; Schuehle, a fine kicking back from the same valley town; Paul Hancock, plunging fullback from El Campo, and Chester Chomowski, Houston back, stood out in the backfield, along with Sullivan."

"In the letter was a map showing that Hondo lies 40 miles west of San Antonio, and is a far cry from the valley. The Rio Grande town is Rio Hondo, 20 miles from Brownsville.

"Mechler and Schuehle are my own proteges, hence my interest to correct the inclosed clipping." Mr. Jungman writes. "Mechler and Schuehle (of Hondo) are going places with Rice, so you scribbles may as well know where they are from."

Mr. Jungman attended Hondo High School back in 1915 before going to Rice. And he's right about the two backs. They are fine-looking prospects.

LAUGHS, LOVE, SENTIMENT MARK DRAMA.

Engagingly sentimental, wholesomely appealing, "The Virginia Judge," film version of Walter C. Kelly's internationally known stage character, opens Monday and Tuesday at the Colonial Theatre, is a happy combination of gay comedy, heart-warming drama and unsophisticated romance, a simple story of small town life in the Tidewater country of Virginia.

Kelly himself, in the title role, contributes a noteworthy characterization as the lovable judge whose court room is the center of many bits of philosophical, but sarcastic, humor as he pronounces sentence on the many dorkies who appear before him.

Marsha Hunt, young screen sensation, makes her film debut in this production as the attractive belle of the little Southern town.

Stepin Fetchit, beloved sepienogue, romps away with the comedy's more amusing moments with an hilarious interpretation as the community's harmless but troublesome bad boy.

Johnny Downs and Robert Cummings, as the two juvenile leads, are pleasing and capable in their respective roles.

Vice President and Mrs. John N. Garner left Uvalde the latter part of last week for Seattle, Wash., from which point they sailed Oct. 16 for a trip to the Philippine Islands, Japan and China, according to The Uvalde Leader-News.

The Vice President will represent the United States at the inauguration of Manuel Luis Quezon as first president of the Philippine republic. To Mr. Garner, the inauguration will be of unusual significance, since Quezon was resident commissioner of the Philippines for several years while Garner was a member of the House of Representatives. The two became good friends during that time. It will also be the realization of a cherished hope which Garner has entertained ever since he first went to Congress more than thirty years ago, that of Philippine independence.

When Garner first entered the race for Congress in the old 15th District, one of the platform pledges was the independence of the islands and he has steadfastly worked for it since.

It will also be the first extended trip Mr. Garner has ever made from the United States. As a member of the House Appropriations Committee he visited the Panama Canal a short time before the project was completed, and another visit was made shortly after the canal was opened. Except for these two trips and an occasional fishing and hunting trip to Mexico, he has never been outside the United States.

Following the visit to the Philippines, Mr. and Mrs. Garner will sail for Japan and China, and will be received by the Japanese Mikado at Tokyo.

They will return to the United States in December and go direct from the West Coast to Washington to be present at the opening of Congress.

Fall gardens are being planted this month by 4-H club girls. Last week, Ruby Nell Harlin, member of the Bloomsdale 4-H club in Collin county, planted black eyed peas in her garden. The preparation of the soil is different from the spring garden in that all vegetation was taken off before the plowing was done, according to Ruby Nell. "The vegetation," she explained, "causes the soil to heat, and thus makes the soil dry." The soil was plowed about three or four inches deep before the seed were planted. Since germination of seed does not take place as well in the summer as in the spring, Ruby Nell planted about one-fourth more seed.

Terrace or contour lines have been run on 2210 acres for seven Hartley county farmers during the past two months. Interest in this work has been stimulated by the need for an effective control of wind erosion. Most of the farmers have received a heavy rain since completing their contour work, and the fact that the contoured rows held all the water that fell on the fields is interesting to other farmers in these demonstrations. Two farmers have terraced their pasture land, and they have found that in this way they can hold water on their pasture that normally goes to shallow lakes.

Recleaned seed oats, free of Johnson grass seed. R. J. MANGOLD, LaCoste, Texas.

WHY NOT?

Millions upon millions of acres of fertile land lies idle, which, if supplied with water, holds a bountiful living for the ones who must cram their families in 2x4 shacks and be known as "cases" on the relief rolls.

God created the earth for man and his use, and it is sad to see the thousands of honest hard-working men who cannot ever hope to own so much as one acre. Let's stop spending money on adornment and start building a string of immense store houses across the land, that will allow not so much as one precious bit of food to go to waste; then give, (give, a funny, obsolete word, almost) each family 160 acres of land, tax free. Oh no, that isn't crazy, that's just good sense.

Parallel to these great store houses let's build great reservoirs that will catch and hold the winter rains, and thus, stop the washing of lands. It is a senseless thing, when one thinks of it, that in a civilized, educated land, that sparkling rivers are allowed to run into the sea, as though the old world were not dying for the want of water. I sometimes wonder, are we civilized? Are we a God-serving Christian nation? (And God made man in His image!) Man can and will make his own way, if he has access to land and water, and he cannot make his way, if denied God's gifts to man.

Give the people a chance. It would be far better to have idle land occupied with industrious families, and far better the laughter of little children than the cry of the coyotes over a barren, lifeless waste of ground. —TUMBLEWEED.

IT'S HOME TOWN SERVICE

The best part about your telephone service is that it's home town service—tailor-made for you at the switchboard by people who live and work here.

Experts on American Telephone & Telegraph Company's headquarters staff can develop better methods of giving you service. Scientists of Bell Telephone Laboratories can contribute new inventions and scientific developments. Western Electric can buy and manufacture economically for the 24 operating companies of the Bell System.

And all of these things can—and do—help us tremendously at the job of giving you good telephone service at a fair cost.

Yet not one of them could replace the qualities of friendliness and neighborliness which grow out of the fact that the men and women who operate the telephones here belong to and are part of this community.

You can't measure these qualities. You can't set them down on monthly reports. Yet they have a large part in the job of providing telephone service.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Confirmation, which means to establish, make firm, is a rite in the Lutheran Church performed by the pastors, and follows upon a period of instruction. The baptismal vow which was spoken by the sponsors, is renewed and ratified in confirmation. The child learns how it became a child of God and how it may remain such, and personally makes a confession of this faith and promises are renewed to be true to the Christian belief and the Church. "Whosoever therefore shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny Me before men, him will I also deny before My Father which is in heaven." Matt. 10, 32-33.

The class which will be confirmed on Sunday consists of the following: Clinton Grell, Amanda Haass, Esther Koehler, Samuel Koehler, Harold Moehring, Virginia Moehring, Wesley Moehring, Melba Mussmann, Roland Nester, Arnold Saathoff, Edgar Saathoff, Rica Saathoff, Leslie Schlenz, Zeldia Schweers, and Ralph Stiegler.

San Antonio... PUBLIC SERVICE Company

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF TEXAS.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

WHEREAS, the State of Texas will be host to many thousands of visitors from over the country during the coming year of our Centennial Celebration and

WHEREAS, in anticipation of those visitors every effort should be made to put our house in order so that the natural beauty of our state may not be blemished by unsightly elements, and

WHEREAS, such efforts may well be directed toward the cleaning up of all rubbish, junk, and other things that may mar the appearance of our highways and roads along which our visitors will gather their first impression of Texas,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES V. ALLRED, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim the week of October 21st to 26th, 1935, as

and call to the attention of all committees and individuals the value of such industry as may be necessary on their part to present the best possible appearance of their locality for the benefit of the future travelers who will partake of the hospitality of our state.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be impressed hereon at Austin, Texas, this the 27th day of September, A. D., 1935.

(signed) JAMES V. ALLRED, Governor of Texas.

In cooperation with the Citizen's Organization for Highway Beautification to get our State cleaned up for 1936, it is urged that all householders make every effort possible to clean up for health as well. Every effort should be made to eradicate potential mosquito breeding places, by draining all water pools are oiling those that cannot be drained, all tin cans and receptacles that can hold water should be flattened out or punched with holes and carted from the premises. Also destroy the weeds on or around your homes, especially the rag weed.

W. H. SMITH, Medina County Health Officer.

This department urges that in Hondo's clean-up week endeavors that precautionary measures be taken to prevent fires. Cut the weeds on your premises before a frost makes dry tinder of them. Be careful of trash heaps that you must burn on your property. All combustibles should be hauled away or burned under rigid supervision.

Yours for cooperation, HONDO VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPT.

Interstate shipments of poultry and eggs in Texas during June totaled 70 carloads, composed of 38 cars of poultry and 32 cars of eggs, against 87 cars for the corresponding month last year, of which 51 cars were poultry and 36 cars were eggs, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. It is probable that this downward trend may be reversed in the not distant future when the prospective abundant and relatively cheap feed crop will seek an outlet through the development of animal enterprises including poultry production, the report said. Receipts of eggs from outside states amounted to 20 cars—11 from Kansas, 2 from Missouri, 3 from Oklahoma, and 4 from Nebraska. In June last year a total of 28 cars were brought in from other states—25 cars from Kansas, and 1 car each from Missouri, Nebraska, and Iowa.

CLEAN-UP WEEK FOR HONDO

The Centennial Board has appealed to the Citizens' Organizations for Highway Beautification to get the State of Texas cleaned up for 1936. Governor Allred has issued a proclamation, which appears elsewhere in this paper, designating the days from October 21st to October 26th as "Clean-up Week".

Mrs. Jack Lacy, chairman of Medina County in the Highway Beautification work, and Mrs. R. J. Nester, local chairman for Hondo, have requested that the county newspaper, citizens, county officials and town organizations back up the clean-up campaign.

The following are some of the suggestions for the clean-up efforts: All trash heaps in sight of highways should be removed. Clear away all unsightly signs.

All citizens, no matter how busy their premises look, should see they can't improve them during clean-up week.

The County Judge and Commissioners and all city officials are urged to clean up all County and City owned property.

The County Agents should appeal to their rural friends, encourage them to remove all unsightly signs from their trees and fences to remove as many utility places from their houses as possible, so they can't be seen from the highway.

See that all tin cans and worn automobile parts are placed out of sight in some ditch that should be filled. Cover them with dirt and grass.

All rural mail boxes should be placed on neat posts and made to look as attractive as possible.

Do special work on all highway entrances to city and community centers.

Elsewhere in this paper, in cooperation with the governor's proclamation for clean-up week, Dr. W. H. Smith, County Health Officer, appeals for a clean-up for health purposes, and the Volunteer Fire Department asks it as a precautionary measure against fires.

The local Chamber of Commerce is devoting its efforts to securing a new and greatly needed dump ground. The new site will not be secured in time for Clean-up Week, but the citizens of Hondo are urged to haul their trash to the old dump ground, perhaps for the last time.

It is hoped that the cooperation of every organized body and individual citizen in Hondo and in the County will make this section of the State present the appearance it should.

CORN-HOG REFERENDUM.

A referendum will be held for the purpose of receiving the individual votes of all producers of corn and hogs, whether they have signed corn-hog contracts or not, indicating whether they do or do not favor the Corn-Hog Adjustment Program which follows the 1935 Program which expires November 30, 1935. How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed. How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Third, Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds. Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Ruby Nell Muennink, a bride of the month, at the home of Mrs. T. J. Wiemers at New Fountain, Saturday, October 5th. The bride entered the room as the wedding march from Lohengrin was played. She wore a gown of purple tulle with a train of lilac. The colors of purple and lilac were carried out in all appointments. Miss Vernell Stiegler gave the following toast:

Of all our friends that came here today
Were asked just what they would like to say,
I'm sure their wishes would fill this space,
Expression of joy is in every face.

We honor one who has golden hair,
And ere long, will be a bride most fair,
With Wilkes, her choice, by her side,
Oh, happy groom, oh, lovely bride.

Soon you come from altar, a wedded pair,
When you solemnly vow to ever share
Each other's pleasures, each other's woes,
It matters not which way the tide goes.

May love you have spoken for each other,
Grow stronger each day, don't ever bother,
For true love, always will stand the test,
And unto God leave all the rest.

Miss Erna Wiemers took charge of the beautiful handmade bride's book, which was presented to the honoree by Mrs. Alfred Schweers. Little Miss Edrine Bohmfalk and Franklin Muennink were kept busy bringing in several wagon loads of beautiful and useful gifts.

A delicious plate lunch of chicken sandwiches and coffee was served to sixty-seven guests.

Hostesses were Mesdames T. J. Wiemers, John Muennink, Ervin Bohmfalk and J. E. Muennink.

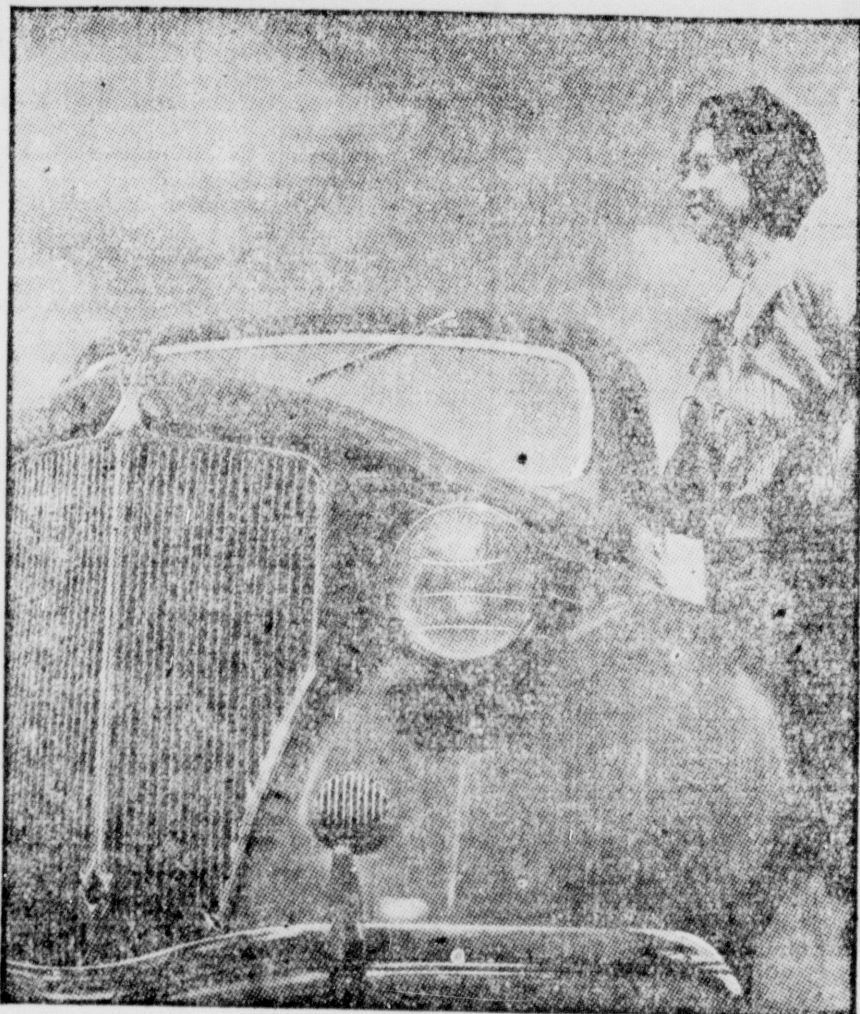

The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Anvil Herald. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them learn of your visit through these pages whenever you go away. We will consider it a courtesy whenever you give us an item of any kind. Ford V-8 Streamlining Steps Ahead

THE IMPROVED streamlining of the front end of the Ford V-8 for 1936 is well illustrated by this camera shot. Note the horn set into the fender apron behind a chromium grille and the way the graceful contour of the fender is carried to the edge of the new radiator grille. A glimpse of the new hood louvers is caught behind the headlamp. The V-8 insignia on the prow of the car is of new design.

HIGHWAY BONDS CARRY TEN TO ONE.

The Highway bond tax for securing and fencing right-of-way on No. 173 and widening No. 2, was a smashing victory for the $20,000.00 bond issue. It was predicted before the election that 90 per cent would be for the issue; and with a small vote of tax-paying citizens, it was even larger than this. With all boxes, except Haass, with only a few votes, known to be favorable to the issue, heard from the vote was:

DIES AT MARFA.

William Weber, aged 66 years, died at his home October 8, from a heart ailment after a three weeks' illness. Mr. Weber was born in Castroville, Texas, on May 28, 1869, and came to Marfa to make his home in 1900, where he has lived continuously since that date. He was engaged in truck farming at his place.

Mr. Weber is survived by his wife and six children, Ferdinand, Thresa, Philip of San Francisco, Mrs. Sergeant Bee of Ohio, Mrs. Hilda Sullivan, and Mrs. Sergeant Seibert of Ft. Knox, Ky.; seven grandchildren. Mrs. Emmi Kreisler, sister to Mr. Weber, and daughter, Mrs. Louise Tonder, both of San Antonio, attended the funeral services here.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic church and interment was made in the Marfa cemetery. Pallbearers were Jack Knight, Forrest Jordan, Bill Bishop, Clyde McFarland, George Chasman, J. J. Fortner and Floyd Nicolls.

Deceased was a younger brother of Mrs. Geo. Schmidt of this place and of Fritz Weber of Utopia. He was also a brother-in-law of Adolph and Charlie Haass of this place, having married an older sister of these gentlemen.

WIEMERS-MUENNINK.

Mr. Wilkes Wiemers and Miss Ruby Nell Muennink were happily married on October 9, at 7 P. M. in the New Fountain Methodist parsonage. Rev. H. W. Gaston officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muennink. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wiemers, both of New Fountain.

This paper joins the many friends of the young couple in extending congratulations and best wishes.

Ten No. 1 cans of ground turkey were sold by Mrs. H. G. Millican of the Loving Home Demonstration Club at 35 cents per can on the first market day held in Young county by home demonstration club women. Mrs. Millican already has 20 orders for the next market day. At the market, which was established early in June, the women have sold all kinds of vegetables, fruits, poultry, cakes and breads. For the past five Saturdays the total receipts have been $137.32. The market is open only one-half day each week.

I BOUGHT A VOSS Because it is the ONLY WASHER

SAFE WRINGER

THOUSANDS of women today are saying, "I bought a VOSS because it is the only washing machine with a SAFE WRINGER."

The VOSS patented Dual-Safety Wringer virtually eliminates all possibility of accidents. A slight touch or pull or any part of the body coming in contact with the safety guard, which completely surrounds the wringer rolls, will release the tension on the rolls and instantly stop the machine.

This Dual-Safety Wringer is available on VOSS Washers only, and is approved by the Underwriters' Laboratories.

Before you buy any washing machine, be sure it is SAFE.

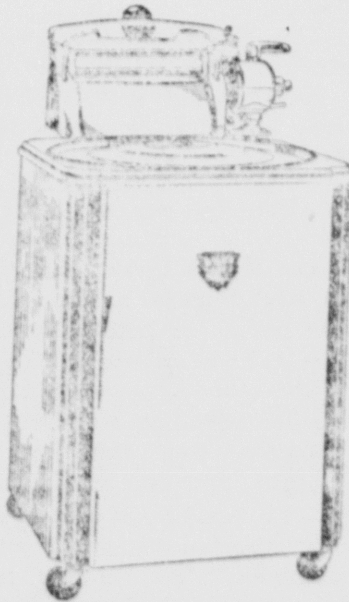

This exclusive VOSS Dual-Safety Wringer makes washing in your home SAFE.

HOW IT WASHES

ALL VOSS Washer agitators float on the top of the water and are known as "Suds-A-Rotors." This is an exclusive patented VOSS feature and has been awarded the approval of the Good Housekeeping Institute.

This "Suds-A-Rotor" means that the action of your clothes in a VOSS Washer is at the surface of the water, mixing the water, soap and air into clean active suds, just like you would wash by hand. There is no harsh, violent action to tear your clothes. The dirt and sediment drops quickly to the bottom instead of grinding through the fabrics again and again, which happens with a bottom agitator.

This "Suds-A-Rotor" is the secret of cleaner, whiter, fresher clothes and can be had only on VOSS Washers.

OTHER VOSS FEATURES

- ★ Corrugated Porcelain Enamel Tub.
- ★ Consumes less electricity than any standard electric washer.
- ★ Agitator easy to remove, which gives operator free access to clothes.
- ★ Simplest driving mechanism (only 4 moving parts).
- ★ Self-Lubricating. (No oil worries.)
- ★ Finger-tip control.
- ★ Electric Motor mounted on rubber.

Come in and let us prove to you why we know Voss is the most practical washing machine for your home.

Every home can now have the Safest and Best washing machine made today, with our low-payment plan. Voss Washers are priced from $59.95 up.

HONDO, TEXAS

High School Brackenridge "B" News

USED BY COURTESY OF THE OWL

Owl's Hoot At Bulldogs' Barking.

Hondo's fighting Owls took a 21-6 decision over Somerset Friday afternoon. With the exception of several very costly fumbles, the Owls played very well.

About the end of the initial quarter an alert Owl blocked a punt on the Somerset twenty-five yard line. It bounded across the goal line and Somerset recovered, which gave the Owls a safety instead of a touchdown, which they would have made, had they recovered. This gave the Owls a 2-0 lead. At the end of the first quarter Hondo had possession of the ball deep in Somerset territory, but they failed to make a touchdown on the first few plays of the second quarter. Late in the same quarter the Owls scored on a long end run by Finger. Oefinger's try for conversion was wide.

In the third quarter Somerset scored after several passes and consistent gains through the line. The pass for the extra point was blocked. This touchdown seemed to put the fighting spirit in the Owls, as, after the kickoff, they marched right down the field to score another touchdown. The Owls made good gains through the line and around the end, and their passing attack also began to "click". The touchdown came as the result of a completed pass, Windrow to Finger. Oefinger's try for the extra point was good.

Again in the final quarter the Owls made a long march down the field to end by making another six points. The touchdown again came as the result of a pass, Windrow to Finger. Oefinger's try for extra point was wide.

J. H. Rothe was unable to play in Friday's game because of a sore leg. Everyone hopes to see him in the game again next Friday when the Owls take on the Devine Warhorses.

DISTRICT FOOTBALL.

Del Rio was slowed down slightly in the game Friday. They scored only 31 points on Carrizo Springs. Carrizo's chances for a win in the south half were dimmed somewhat by the loss of one of their best players. He had two bones broken in his hand.

The Uvalde Coyotes took a rest and were probably all on the sidelines at the Carrizo game.

Hondo has been scouted very little this year. We wonder why the lack of interest. When some of these green boys get a few more games under their belt they will bear watching.

Scores last week:
Crystal City 39, Eagle Pass 0.
Devine 13, South San Antonio 7.
Hondo 21, Somerset 6.
Del Rio 31, Carrizo Springs 0.
Pearsall 21, Asherton 6.
Sabinal 14, Natalia 0.

Games next week:
Thursday: at Hondo, Boogeroos vs. Natalia.
Friday: Devine at Hondo.
Uvalde at Pearsall.
Del Rio at Sabinal.

Hondo fans will be looking forward to the return of J. H. Rothe to the line-up. If no more injuries develop he should be in there against Devine.

We understand that Devine features spins and reverses. Hondo ends please note.

The Owl secondary looked bad against the Somerset passing game. There was little excuse for that Somerset score.

Langston of Devine is one of the fastest backs in the district. If he ever breaks loose around end it will simply be bad news for the Owls.

The Boogeroos are getting set for Natalia's visit here Thursday afternoon. Both teams lost a game last week and each is out for a win. Coach Barry is not giving the Boogeroos any new plays. They make up new plays as they need them during the game.

Did you hear that neat play in the S. M. U.-Washington game? A Mustang back intercepted a Washington pass and ran some thirty yards. As he was tackled he flipped a lateral to Wilson, another back, and Wilson ran another thirty yards to score. That's heads-up football.

SECOND GRADE.

The second grade walls are attractively decorated with pumpkins and Hallowe'en witches.

Brackenridge "B" Defeats Boogeroos.

The Brackenridge B team which invaded Hondo Thursday evening returned to San Antonio with a 14-6 victory over the Boogeroos. The Boogs played fairly well during the game but they showed a lack of power and experience, both those in the line and those in the backfield.

In the first quarter Brackenridge recovered a fumble on the Boogs' thirty yard line. Early in the second quarter after a series of line plays the Eagles carried the ball across the goal line. A pass for the extra point was good.

After the kickoff following the first touchdown, Hondo advanced the ball to mid-field by means of a completed pass and an end run. From here the ball was passed, Muennink to Zerr, and was carried across the Eagles' goal line, aided by good blocking by Neuman. A pass was tried for the extra point but it was incomplete.

The Eagles scored again later in the game after another series of line plays. The touchdown came, however, as the result of a completed pass. Again a pass for the extra point was good.

The remainder of the game was scoreless. Hondo made more first downs than Brackenridge and few penalties when compared to theirs.

IMPRESSIONS OF THE BOOGEROO-BRACKENRIDGE GAME.

Zerr's hard-driving ball carrying... Huesser throwing the S. A. boys behind the line... Hull standing up looking into the bleachers during the huddle... Muennink's "hope" passes... Mummie getting tough with that little Brackenridge substitute... Jungman making a tackle and getting chesty about it... the Brackenridge coach being upset about the Boogeroo seven man line as his boys were not coached to block one... Muennink's spectacular 10-yard punt... Renken falling down... star players against Hondo during the last half; B. Durham, Ripple, and P. Albert... and that Boogeroo blocking!!!!

OWLETS-SQUIBS.

Anna L. Welhausen, Sis Merritt and Billy Merritt saw "Broadway Melody of 1936" in San Antonio Sunday.

Zonie Taylor spent the week-end with Gwen Gray at Dunlay.

Luke Palmer and Stanley Sherman of San Antonio visited Fern Ulbrich and Jackie Bradley Sunday.

Miss Adams spent the week-end in Waco.

Harvey Renken and Monroe Langford were in Crystal City Sunday night.

Faul Cook Simmons and Gene Corder of Sabinal visited Earline Watson and Ada Belle Carter Sunday evening.

The freshmen class welcomes a new pupil, Calvin Bendele.

OWLETS-FARMERS HOLD INITIATION.

The Hondo Chapter, F. F. A., held its first regular initiation last Monday night. Twenty-nine new members were admitted into the chapter.

The meeting was opened with the regular opening ceremony and the initiation was the first business brought before the house.

The fifteen charter members performed the initiation ceremony on the new members. Twenty-nine new members were initiated, bringing the number in the chapter up to forty-four.

The regular bi-monthly business meeting was then held, and among the business transacted was: (1) it was decided that a committee be appointed to thank Mr. Arthur Ney for fixing our banner; (2) it was decided the chapter conduct a raffle to raise more money for the treasury; (3) and it was decided that Miss Billie Merritt, our sweetheart, be awarded a bronze Greenhand pin.

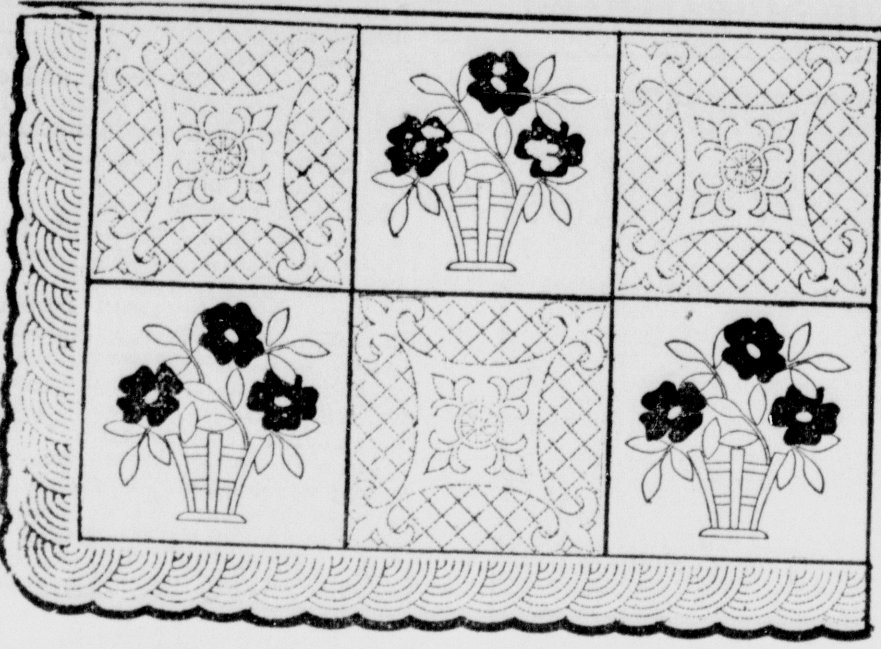

The meeting then resolved itself into a discussion of exhibiting agricultural products and conducting a project show at the fair grounds Nov. 11. Meeting adjourned.

H. MEYER, Chapter Reporter.

OWLETS-FIRST GRADE.

We have been making new workbooks along with Hallowe'en owls and witches. We are just finishing our first primer. Margaret Ann Laughinghouse and Ducky Ulbrich have been sick during the week.

The Wild Rose Applique Quilt

A DELIGHTFUL early American design that women have enjoyed making for many generations. The blocks are 18 inches and 12 blocks make a quilt. The flowers are made up in a very colorful combination of orchids with green stems and leaves in a light brown basket.

Quilting design No. 511 is used for quilting the plain blocks; a quilting border No. Q-B-554, 6 inch, is used for the border. The tracing patterns for quilting designs are 10c each. The applique patterns are 15c each and contain a complete illustration of the block and a cutting guide for each of the applique pieces and suggested color scheme.

Be sure to send today for our beautiful Colonial Quilt Book—32 pages showing over 200 of the most popular designs in lovely color combinations. As a special offer, we are giving you free, one quilt pattern with each order for this attractive book, which is only 25c. Single patchwork patterns or quilting patterns (for tracing) are 10c each, or three for 25c. A special combination No. C-40 of the Quilt Book, Wild Rose Applique quilting design and border pattern is given for 45c. Enclose clipping or state number

S. F. CLUB ENTERTAINS.

The S. F. Club entertained with a Bunco party Saturday night, October 5, at the home of Frances Ruth Fly. The front rooms were beautifully decorated with white and cream colored roses and fern. The guests enjoyed playing Bunco and other games throughout the evening.

Delicious refreshments of lemonade and various kinds of sandwiches were served to Helen Burgin, Betty Jean Merriman, Kathleen Reilly, Sue Muennink, Elizabeth Reynolds, Evelyn Ruth Dawson, Eva Mae Hull, Fay Iris Carter, J. H. Rothe, Tommy Danie, Burnell Rihn, Harry Freeman, Bonnard Rothe, Bob Zerr, Burleigh Smith, Jack Fitzpatrick, Babo Windrow, and the hostess, Frances Ruth Fly.

OWLETS-SUB-DEB CLUB.

The Sub-Deb Club met Wednesday afternoon at the club room with Miss Gwen Gray as hostess.

Plans for decorating the new club room were discussed. It was decided to use the club dues to pay for drapes and other furnishings.

Miss Gray served refreshments to the following members and Microbes: Misses Evelyn Barnes, Jo Reilly, Anna L. Welhausen, Evelyn Knopp, Roseina Taylor, Ginger Fusselman, Billy Merritt, Susie Muennink, Frances Taylor, Betty J. Merriman, Frances R. Fly, Mary Elizabeth Meyer, and little Miss Anne Kelly, a guest.

Kathleen Reilly will be the next hostess.

OWLETS-FRESHMAN PICNIC.

King's Water Hole was the site for the Freshman picnic Friday evening after the football game. The refreshments consisted of sandwiches, fruit and lemonade. Several went in swimming. Two of the guests came on horses, so some went horseback riding. A large bonfire was built, and everyone sat around it and talked.

MARSHMALLOW ROAST.

Wanda and J. B. Redmond entertained with a marshmallow roast at their home Saturday evening beginning at seven o'clock.

Those enjoying the evening were Jackie Bradley, Babo Windrow, Tommy Danie, Eva Earnest, the host, J. B., and the hostess, Wanda.

OWLETS-P. T. A. MEETS.

The Hondo P. T. A. held its regular monthly meeting in the High School auditorium Monday afternoon, October 14, with Mrs. Starnes presiding. The first vice-president, Mrs. Scott had charge of the program. The first number was a song, "Beautiful Texas", by six girls. This song was in keeping with Texas Founders P. T. A. Day. Mrs. Aten then gave a talk on the Birthday of Texas Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations.

The third grade, with fourteen mothers present, won the book.

OWLETS-FIFTH GRADE.

The Fifth Battalion is the center of beautiful cut flowers and some very pretty pot plants. Stella, Frances, Glenrose, Joe, Dolly, Ellen, and Walter have brought us pot plants.

Four of our soldiers were on the hospital list last week. We are glad to have them back.

We have a set of new World Books that are used very much.

AN APPRECIATION.

Dear Mr. Davis:

As a subscriber to your Journal I have enjoyed it very much. Dr. Spain's articles have all been interesting and Musings of a Minister have been well worth reading. I greatly regret the passing of Father Vernimont.

Your "Muses Garden" department is of special interest to me. It has proved both entertaining and instructive. It has greatly encouraged and aided the new poets; those modern singers whose songs will someday be heard and honored along with the great voices that are stilled. They will look back over the long discouraging trail their winged feet have trod and will recall with real gratitude the one green oasis in a literary desert—the Muses' Garden.

My compliments to Lillian Stickney on her very excellent article. I have also read and enjoyed some of her poetry. However, I cannot agree with her that strict economy is essential to prosperity.

No true and lasting prosperity can exist until the unemployables—that vast army of unemployed who cannot under present conditions be absorbed by industry—are made self-supporting. Increased efficiency of present day machinery has relegated millions of workers to the discard and no amount of prosperity will ever guarantee them permanent jobs. Some other solution to the problem must be found.

Granted that the dole has a demoralizing effect upon our citizens—what else have you to offer? Economy? Prosperity? Empty words—the big bad wolf will still be camped upon our doorstep! The only solution I see (and it is very experimental and has many disadvantages) is Co-operative enterprises for the unemployables.

I have labored almost entirely without compensation, during the past two years in the interests of the unemployed. I have found few content with the dole although many accept it in preference to temporary jobs that offer no real security. But the spirit is there. Solve their unemployment problem and you will find them carrying dinner pails—and wearing smiles.

I am pleased to note that you are getting considerable support for your journal. I have secured a few new subscribers for you in various parts of the United States; however, I want to warn your supporters that times are critical and it is therefore doubly necessary that the friends of Fletcher's Farming be not lax in their vigilance.

I once was Sports Writer for a paper: a group of us, feeling that the big daily was not giving us a square deal, dug down in our pockets and, by dint of much elbow grease and an occasional muttered prayer, managed to secure and assemble a complete newspaper plant. Soon the presses were humming and the city awoke one morning to find ten thousand copies dumped on the doorsteps. The Townsend Clubs; The Grange; The Epics; all who formerly had to be content with a brief mention in the big daily; now wallowed in whole columns. But our friends thought we were prospering and ceased giving us their wholehearted support. As a result, less than a year later found our plant owned by a fat politician and the Herald's sacred pages (sans Townsends, sans Grange, sans Epics) devoted to spreading the propaganda of this particular politico.

OFF-HAND OBSERVATIONS

BY R. R. CLARIDGE,
Staff Contributor.

Senator Huey Long made a good start to clean up New Orleans, politically and morally. If he had succeeded, even measurably, it would have been little short of miraculous. In both respects, New Orleans and Paris, France, have had way-back reputation as the vilest sink-holes of iniquity on earth. As gateways to hell, the Mississippi river town, clear back to stern-wheel steam-boat days, has been the widest open; for reason, no doubt, that the French city uses wine as satanic inspiration, while the American subsidiary of his satanic majesty does it with "rot-gut" whisky.

I would love to see the time when the ships of all nations would have unrestricted access to the seven seas. Right now, there is deadly danger of war between two great nations, for two reasons, namely: that the dictator of Italy wants (1) unrestricted passage to the east via the Dardanelles, and (2) that he wants to extend his iron rule over Ethiopia. As some of the foreign nations are for him, and others against his greedy ambition, the outcome is reasonably certain to bring on another holocaust of inhuman slaughter, with a desperate chance to involve the U. S. in the maelstrom.

As, however, American big business has loaned and invested abroad, some 25 billion dollars, that it beat the American people out of during the world war, I have had the idea that fear as to what might become of the investment in case this country should become involved, may keep us out. But I don't know. The Ethiopian niggers might kill a few American tourists; or a foreign submarine might sink another American ship; or some other fool thing might start a hue-and-cry by our daily press, with oil poured on it by the war-lords and the war-material makers, till our people would go loco again, and try to "make the world safe for Democracy". I leave it to you all, if we made it very safe the last time, for the Thomas Jefferson definition.

While National sales agent of the Farm Labor Union, I had the following in the Union News:

"It appears hard for the Bureaucrats to sense the possibility that farmers may price their own cotton and get the money for it before it leaves their control. That the founders of the Farm Labor Union had such possibility in mind was one of the reasons why I got in with it. There may have been a time when it was necessary to ship the cotton to far-away centers and from control by the men who had sweat to produce it; but not any more, under our later-day system of grade standardization.

"It may be found necessary to have our F. L. U. sales-agents at such centers, but not a bale of cotton. Knowing the location, class and price of every bale of cotton, with the samples at hand; when a buyer wants so many thousand bales of certain grade and staple, a touch of the wire and the thing is done. And before the cotton moves, the grower has his money. Under conditions available at this time, it's a bad sign for a selling agency to get a farmer's cotton away from him under long time contract, to do what they blank please with it—even to the right to decide what is a "fair price".

Reminds that since I went on the job I am hearing a lot from street-buyers, side-walk farmers, farm bunk newspapers and county agents, to the general tenor and effect that the farmers will not stick unless they are tied up in a contract. Well, what of it? This is their deal, and if they will not back it, Farm Bunk will have clear right-of-way, which it certainly has not, at this stage of the game. A selling scheme with the farmers bossing the deal is too opaque a problem for men who are on top of a top-heavy deal."

At that time we had a few counties all over the South, mainly in Texas, so well organized, and crop so completely tied up, with the grower's price on it, that the sight of a bale of cotton on the streets was a rare one. And another fine sight was to see the buyers climb the stairways to find out the price from our county sales agents. Where was the cotton? IN THE WAREHOUSE, GRADED AND STAPLED. We had not gotten far enough along to get it in warehouse at shipping points.

But the Farm Federation, with the Federal-State partnership, and its big business backing generally, behind it, got the best of us, with its "orderly marketing" 'shibboleth, and—well, you see what has come to pass. Do you happen to know the meaning of "orderly marketing"? WHATEVER PRICE THE GAMBLING EXCHANGES HAD ON WHEN THEIR PANDER-IN-CHIEF, THE FARM BUREAU, SOLD THE COTTON.

P. S. There recently passed away, a man of world-wide fame, leaving a world in mourning. Will Rogers was not only a humorist; he was a statesman, with a decided leaning toward fundamental Democracy. It cropped out persistently, in the guise of humor, the only reason it ever appeared in the pander press of the oligarchy of greed that is sending the world to what?

HOW THINGS DO CHANGE

By DR. P. A. SPAIN
Contributor

In the days of Mary Ellen Lease and Jerry Simpson of Kansas, farmers were advised to go home, slop the hogs raise more corn and less hell; but lo and behold what a change; they are now advised to raise less crops and more hell.—have a drink?

The Debt Mania.

A western writer says:—It is a mighty slow town these days that does not vote for more debt. Canyon City, John Day, Prairie City and Long Creek in Grant County, Oregon, have all voted bond issues. The public and private debts resting upon the resources of this County, are greater than the combined assessed value of all the property in the County, and more than a quarter of a million dollars go Bast in interest each year.

Of course, the people pay it in various ways. The Government borrows money, taxes the people for interest, and then literally gives it to States, Counties and towns that will vote equal bonds and blow it in on something. It acts as a veritable bribe offered by the Government. America seems to have a mad mania for debt.

A New Prophet.

Congressman Peterson of Ga. is evidently a man of good foundation. He has introduced in Congress a bill: To provide Homes Free From Debt To Actual Farm Families. It is similar in its purposes to the Frazier-Lemke Bill and both should be merged into one. The worst defect in Peterson's Bill is, it does not call for an issue of Government Legal Tender with which to carry out its provisions. Mr. Peterson's speech in introducing his bill shows a fund of wisdom. The following high notes are selected from his remarks.

Human beings under ordinary conditions, do not buy farm lands and pay for them out of the fruit of their labors on the farm purchased. This has never been the rule in the recorded history of the human race. The farm mortgage is of no value in re-establishing our farm families in their homes, and in regaining for them the purchasing power of their new wealth. It is of no constructive value to anyone, either the borrower or the lender.

The farm mortgage is destructive in its nature. It is therefore an enemy to society, and should be prohibited. The law which I propose shall accomplish this highly desirable result. In our country today, over two thirds of the farmers are either tenants or have their farms heavily mortgaged, and this percentage is steadily growing each year.

I live in the country, and I know it is not right for the millions of boys and girls who are born in rural sections to be forced to live in poverty and serfdom with no hope of ever owning a home free of debt. An unfair and unjust economic system has forced our people from their homes. It has deprived us of the fruits of our labor, and it has robbed us of our freedom and our happiness.

Our Federal Government can, and should remedy this deplorable condition. It can lift the mortgages from our lands and give back to deserving farm families their homes.

The Government can protect the mothers and fathers as they earnestly strive to properly rear their families and make them secure in their homes by preventing these homes from again being sold or mortgaged; and it can give to the boys and girls who are reared in the country an opportunity to develop their lives in freedom and independence. This Government can lift from the backs of farmers and producers of new wealth, the curse of an ever mounting debt that is crushing their happiness and freedom, and will promote and encourage private initiative, checking the ever increasing tendency toward Governmental regulation of and interference with, the private affairs of our people.

Since it is the farmer who produces the new wealth, certainly it is the farmer to whom the finished product must largely be sold or exchanged.

However, at present the farmer does not enjoy the full use of his new wealth. A large portion of it is lost in rents, interest and royalties for which he receives nothing in exchange. Rents, interest and royalties contribute nothing toward producing this new wealth; therefore, such portion of it as is used in this manner, completely loses its exchange value in so far as the producer is concerned.

The farmer is forced to throw on the market that portion of his new wealth which is used in this manner, but he and his family are unable to buy it back in the finished product. It therefore, becomes the surplus. This surplus has continued to grow each year as rents, interest and royalties have continued to consume larger portions of the farmers' new wealth. The natural result has been that the farmer has grown poorer while the surplus of raw products and finished products has steadily increased until now we witness a nation starving in the midst of plenty.

A normal and natural adjustment of this condition can never be attained until the full exchange value of the farmers' raw products, or new wealth, is restored to him. The measure which I have presented is designed to accomplish this result. Today the free lands are all gone.

We are degenerating into a Nation
